After the school day ends in Michigan, 1 in 4 kids are alone and unsupervised. These hours—from 2 to 6 p.m.—are the peak time for juvenile crime in Michigan according to the latest report by Fight Crime: Invest in Kids, a national organization of law enforcement leaders. Afterschool programs turn that time of risk into opportunity. They keep kids safe and help them realize their full potential. Nationwide, 9 in 10 adults say afterschool programs are important to their community, yet more than 19 million kids are waiting to get in.

Fortunately for the 210,386 children in afterschool programs in Michigan, the hours after school are a time when programs help kids get excited about learning, attend school more often, get better grades, and build foundational skills, like communication, teamwork, and problem solving.

Inspiring Learning

Unmet Demand for Afterschool in Michigan

For every Michigan student in afterschool, 3 more would participate if a program were available.

Waiting: 625,026 Students

Enrolled: 210,386 Students

21st Century Community Learning Center grants are the only dedicated federal funding source that support local communities’ afterschool and summer programs. Demand for programs is so great in Michigan that 1 out of every 2 applications cannot be funded.

A 2019 study of Michigan’s 21st CCLC programs by Michigan State University found that students who regularly attended programs and had room for improvement saw increases in their math (52%) and reading (51%) grades from fall to spring, and showed improvement in homework completion and classroom participation (74%) and classroom behavior (79%).
A Lifeline for Working Families

Families across America report that the gap between work and school schedules can be up to 25 hours per week. Parents lose 8 days of work, and businesses lose up to $300 billion a year due to parental concerns about afterschool care.

- 74% of Michigan parents say afterschool programs give them peace of mind.
- 66% of Michigan parents agree afterschool programs help them keep their jobs.

Afterschool provides a solid return on investment. Research spanning several states shows that every $1 invested in afterschool programs saves at least $3 by:

1. Increasing kids’ earning potential
2. Improving kids’ performance at school
3. Reducing crime and juvenile delinquency

“I’ve very much fed off of the kindness I received from the group leaders at Boys & Girls Club. As a result, I’m probably going to be teaching and combining my love for music with my teaching. Afterschool is about having options and getting to experiment with all those different things to figure out what it is that you really want.”
