Afterschool Alliance Names Dallas Afterschool Provider One of Just 19 'Afterschool Ambassadors' from Across Nation

Gail Vessels Will Work in Texas and Nationally to Expand Afterschool

Washington, DC – The Afterschool Alliance today announced the selection of Gail Vessels, Vice President, Program Management and Program Development for the YMCA of Metropolitan Dallas to serve as a 2009-2010 Afterschool Ambassador. She is one of just 19 local leaders from 15 states selected for the honor this year. Each Ambassador will continue directing or supporting a local afterschool program while also serving a one-year Afterschool Ambassador term organizing public events, communicating with policy makers, and building support for afterschool programs.

“Quality afterschool programs keep kids safe, inspire them to learn, and help working families,” said Afterschool Alliance Executive Director Jodi Grant. “Americans strongly support afterschool programs but across the nation, we’re seeing programs cut back or closed in the face of recession-driven budget cuts. Vessels brings energy and talent to the role of Afterschool Ambassador, and will spread the word about the urgent need to make afterschool programs available to all children and families that need them. I look forward to working with her to build even stronger support for afterschool among parents, business and community leaders, lawmakers, and the media. We are proud to have Gail on our team.”

“I’m delighted to have this wonderful opportunity to help secure the future of afterschool programs for kids and families in our community, and across the state and nation,” said Vessels. “I’m proud of the contribution afterschool programs make to the community, and look forward to helping expand support for them.”

The YMCA of Metropolitan Dallas serves more 3,000 children daily in afterschool programs across the Dallas metroplex. Vessels had worked for the YMCA of Metropolitan Dallas for one year and in child and youth development for nearly 20 years.

Each Ambassador will organize a major event for Lights On Afterschool, the Afterschool Alliance’s tenth annual nationwide series of rallies for afterschool, on October 22 this year. Last year, a million people rallied at 7,500 Lights On events. Despite overwhelming public support, and an agreement embodied in the No Child Left Behind Act to steadily increase federal funding, federal support for the 21st Century Community Learning Centers initiative – the principal federal funding stream for afterschool programs – has lagged far behind the need. The No Child Left Behind Act authorized $2.5 billion for afterschool this year, but funding is at less than half that level. Congress has not yet completed work on the education budget for Fiscal Year 2010.

Ambassadors will also work to share the results of the Afterschool Alliance's upcoming America After 3PM report, a nationwide survey of nearly 30,000 households gauging their views on afterschool and gathering data on afterschool's impact. The results will be released in early October. In 2004, Afterschool Alliance research revealed that 14.3 million children across the nation had no adult supervision in the afternoons. The new survey was sponsored by the JCPenney Afterschool Fund.
