Afterschool Alliance Names Global Kids' Zerriffi One of 18 'Afterschool Ambassadors' from 15 States

Zerriffi Will Work in New York and Nationally to Expand Afterschool

Washington, DC – The Afterschool Alliance today announced the selection of Nassim Zerriffi, Senior Trainer of Global Kids, to serve as a 2008-2009 Afterschool Ambassador. He is one of just 18 local leaders from 15 states selected for the honor. Each Ambassador will continue directing or supporting a local afterschool program while also serving a one-year Afterschool Ambassador term organizing public events, communicating with policy makers, and building support for afterschool programs. Zerriffi's Ambassadorship is sponsored by The Robert Bowne Foundation.

"Afterschool programs keep children safe, inspire them to learn, and help working families," said Afterschool Alliance Executive Director Jodi Grant. "Americans strongly support afterschool programs but there aren't nearly enough to meet the need, and rising fuel prices and tight budgets at all levels of government are putting financial pressure on the programs we have. In his work as an Afterschool Ambassador, Zerriffi will bring energy and talent to the task of spreading the word about the need to make afterschool programs available to all families that need them. I look forward to working with him to build support for afterschool among parents, business and community leaders, lawmakers, and the media. We are proud to have Nassim on our team."

Founded in 1989, Global Kids' mission is to transform urban youth into successful students and global and community leaders by engaging them in socially dynamic, content-rich learning experiences. Through its leadership development and academic enrichment programs, Global Kids educates youth about critical international and domestic issues and promotes their engagement in civic life and the democratic process. More than 90 percent of the high school seniors who participate in Global Kids' leadership program graduate from high school.

Each Ambassador will plan a major event for Lights On Afterschool, the Afterschool Alliance's October 16 nationwide rally for afterschool. Despite overwhelming public support, and an agreement embodied in the No Child Left Behind Act to steadily increase federal funding, federal support for the 21st Century Community Learning Centers initiative – the principal federal funding stream for afterschool programs – has lagged far behind the need. The No Child Left Behind Act authorized $2.5 billion for afterschool this year, but funding is at less than half that level. Congress has not yet completed work on the education budget for Fiscal Year 2009.

The 2008-2009 Afterschool Ambassadors are:

- CA, San Francisco: Jenny Arcilla-Gonzalez, Chinatown Beacon Center.

This year's Lights On Afterschool events will mark the end of a year-long celebration of the 10th anniversary of the 21st Century Community Learning Centers initiative. Last year, a million people rallied at 7,500 Lights On events to show their support for afterschool programs.

Afterschool programs offer young people safe, enriching, fun and engaging places to spend their afternoons. Youth in afterschool programs have been shown to perform better in school and have greater expectations for the future, while children who are unsupervised in the afternoons are at greater risk of becoming involved with crime, substance abuse and teenage pregnancy. A groundbreaking study conducted for the Afterschool Alliance in 2004 (with funding from the J.C. Penney Co., Inc.) concluded that 14.3 million latchkey children have no adult supervision in the afternoons and that the parents of 15.3 million children would send their child to an afterschool program if one were available.
