Afterschool Alliance Names Windham Afterschool Director One of Just 18 ‘Afterschool Ambassadors’ from Across Nation

Bill Stover Will Work in Connecticut and Nationally to Expand Afterschool

Washington, DC – The Afterschool Alliance today announced the selection of Bill Stover, Director of Supplemental Programs of Windham Public Schools, to serve as a 2010-2011 Afterschool Ambassador. He is one of just 18 local leaders from 16 states selected for the honor this year. Each Ambassador will continue directing or supporting a local afterschool program while also serving a one-year Afterschool Ambassador term organizing public events, communicating with policy makers, and building support for afterschool programs.

“Quality afterschool programs keep kids safe, inspire them to learn, and help working families,” said Afterschool Alliance Executive Director Jodi Grant. “Americans strongly support afterschool programs, but across the nation many of the programs that working families rely on are being threatened because of budget cuts or efforts to divert afterschool funds to other programs. We need to spread the word about the urgent need to make afterschool programs available to all children who need them. Bill will bring great energy and talent to that challenge in his role as an Afterschool Ambassador. I look forward to working with him to build even stronger support for afterschool among parents, business and community leaders, lawmakers and others. We are proud to have Bill on our team.”

“I’m thrilled to have this wonderful opportunity to help secure the future of afterschool programs for kids and families in our community, and across the state and nation,” said Stover. “Afterschool programs are critical to student success and the economic security of working families. I look forward to helping expand support for them.”

The Windham before and after school programs offer safe, creative and educationally enriching activities to more than 300 kindergarten through sixth grade students. Each day the students participate in a variety of learning enrichment activities, health and recreation time, academic support centers, as well as regular educational field trips to all parts of the state. To assist students to improve their reading skills, they are engaged in a reading tutorial program twice a week for a total of three hours. In addition, more than 200 local university students provide one-on-one mentoring during the program as part of the Nutmeg Big Brother and Big Sister Program.

Each Ambassador will organize a major event for Lights On Afterschool, the Afterschool Alliance’s 11th annual national rally for afterschool, to be held on October 21 this year. Last year, a million people participated in some 7,500 Lights On Afterschool events across the United States and at U.S. military bases worldwide. Afterschool programs are under intense pressure this year, with the Senate preparing to consider legislation that would divert some of the already limited afterschool funds to other programs. At Lights On Afterschool rallies this year, participants will sign a parents' petition calling on Congress not to divert or deny afterschool funding.
