Afterschool Alliance Names Baton Rouge Afterschool Provider One of Just 18 'Afterschool Ambassadors' from Across Nation

Gaylynn Mack Will Work in Louisiana and Nationally to Expand Afterschool

Washington, DC – The Afterschool Alliance today announced the selection of Gaylynn Mack, Executive Director of the Big Buddy Program, to serve as a 2010-2011 Afterschool Ambassador. She is one of just 18 local leaders from 16 states selected for the honor this year. Each Ambassador will continue directing or supporting a local afterschool program while also serving a one-year Afterschool Ambassador term organizing public events, communicating with policy makers, and building support for afterschool programs.

“Quality afterschool programs keep kids safe, inspire them to learn, and help working families,” said Afterschool Alliance Executive Director Jodi Grant. “Americans strongly support afterschool programs, but across the nation many of the programs that working families rely on are being threatened because of budget cuts or efforts to divert afterschool funds to other programs. We need to spread the word about the urgent need to make afterschool programs available to all children who need them. Gay will bring great energy and talent to that challenge her role as an Afterschool Ambassador. I look forward to working with her to build even stronger support for afterschool among parents, business and community leaders, lawmakers and others. We are proud to have Gay on our team.”

“I’m thrilled to have this wonderful opportunity to help secure the future of afterschool programs for kids and families in our community, and across the state and nation,” Mack said. “Afterschool programs are critical to student success and the economic security of working families. I look forward to helping expand support for them.”

The Big Buddy Program involves more than 600 youth each day in afterschool programs. We work with community partners and other youth organizations to promote high quality academic and enrichment experiences for youth most in need.

“For more than 23 years, I have been dedicated to making sure that youth have access to positive role models and opportunities for participation and contribution in meaningful events,” Mack said. “The Afterschool Ambassador program will make it possible for me to take my message across the state, to the decision-makers of our community and the nation at large. I am up for the challenge.”

Each Ambassador will organize a major event for Lights On Afterschool, the Afterschool Alliance’s 11th annual national rally for afterschool, to be held on October 21 this year. Last year, a million people participated in some 7,500 Lights On Afterschool events across the United States and at U.S. military bases worldwide. Afterschool programs are under intense pressure this year, with the Senate preparing to consider legislation that would divert some of the already limited afterschool funds to other programs. At

Lights On Afterschool rallies this year, participants will sign a parents' petition calling on Congress not to divert or deny afterschool funding.
