Afterschool Alliance Names Boulder Afterschool Advocate One of Just 18 'Afterschool Ambassadors' from Across Nation

Karen Brown Will Work in Colorado and Nationally to Expand Afterschool

Washington, DC – The Afterschool Alliance today announced the selection of Karen Brown, Director of Middle School and Teen Programs at the YMCA of Boulder Valley, to serve as a 2010-2011 Afterschool Ambassador. She is one of just 18 local leaders from 16 states selected for the honor this year. Each Ambassador will continue directing or supporting a local afterschool program while also serving a one-year Afterschool Ambassador term organizing public events, communicating with policy makers, and building support for afterschool programs.

“Quality afterschool programs keep kids safe, inspire them to learn, and help working families,” said Afterschool Alliance Executive Director Jodi Grant. “Americans strongly support afterschool programs, but across the nation many of the programs that working families rely on are being threatened because of budget cuts or efforts to divert afterschool funds to other programs. We need to spread the word about the urgent need to make afterschool programs available to all children who need them. Karen will bring great energy and talent to that challenge in her role as an Afterschool Ambassador. I look forward to working with her to build even stronger support for afterschool among parents, business and community leaders, lawmakers and others. We are proud to have Karen on our team.”

“I’m thrilled to have this wonderful opportunity to help secure the future of afterschool programs for kids and families in our community, and across the state and nation,” said Brown. “Afterschool programs are critical to student success and the economic security of working families. I look forward to helping expand support for them.”

Karen Brown has been working for the YMCA of Boulder Valley since 2005 in a leadership position. The Y has been serving the Boulder Valley community since 1955. On a yearly basis, the YMCA of Boulder Valley serves nearly 20,000 youth and teens. The Y offers after school opportunities to more than 600 children a week in the Boulder Valley School District during the critical after school hours. In addition, the YMCA BreakThrough Arts program offers free afterschool programs and fun classes for teens ages 13-18. The Y is committed to the potential, health and future of youth in our community.

Each Ambassador will organize a major event for Lights On Afterschool, the Afterschool Alliance’s 11th annual national rally for afterschool, to be held on October 21 this year. Last year, a million people participated in some 7,500 Lights On Afterschool events across the United States and at U.S. military bases worldwide. Afterschool programs are under intense pressure this year, with the Senate preparing to consider legislation that would divert some of the already limited afterschool funds to other programs. At Lights On Afterschool rallies this year, participants will sign a parents’ petition calling on Congress not to divert or deny afterschool funding.
