Afterschool Alliance Names Havre Afterschool Provider One of Just 20 'Afterschool Ambassadors' from Across Nation

Tim Brurud Will Work in Montana and Nationally to Expand Afterschool

Washington, DC – The Afterschool Alliance today announced that Tim Brurud, Director of the Boys & Girls Club of the Hi-Line has been selected to serve as a 2011-2012 Afterschool Ambassador. He is one of just 20 local leaders from 17 states chosen for the honor this year. Each Ambassador will continue directing or supporting a local afterschool program while also serving a one-year Afterschool Ambassador term organizing public events, communicating with policy makers, and building support for afterschool programs.

“Quality afterschool programs are invaluable to students, families and communities,” said Afterschool Alliance Executive Director Jodi Grant. “These programs keep kids safe, help working families and inspire students to learn. But in Washington, D.C. and all across the country, the afterschool programs that families rely on are being threatened by budget cuts and efforts to divert afterschool funds to other programs. We need to spread the word about the urgent need to make opportunities to attend afterschool programs available to all children who need them. Tim will bring great skill and energy to that work in his role as an Afterschool Ambassador. I look forward to working with him to build even stronger support for afterschool programs among parents, business and community leaders, lawmakers and others.”

“I am delighted to have this chance to help increase support for afterschool programs, which give students opportunities to explore their interests and give parents the security that comes with knowing that their children are safe and supervised, with engaging, educational activities after the school day ends,” said Brurud. “Afterschool programs are critical to students’ success in school, to families trying to survive in this recession, and to America’s workforce in the future. We need to strengthen the afterschool programs we have and ensure that there is a program for every child who needs one.”

The Boys & Girls Club of the Hi-Line has been serving youth in Havre for nine years now and has developed a reputation as one of the best after-school programs in the state. They serve over 550 youth every year, and an average of 190 kids attend the Club every day.

Each Ambassador will organize an event for Lights On Afterschool, the Afterschool Alliance’s 12th annual national rally for afterschool, to be held on October 27th this year. Last year, a million people participated in some 7,500 Lights On Afterschool events across the United States and at U.S. military bases worldwide. Afterschool programs are under intense pressure this year, with the Senate considering legislation that would divert some of the already limited afterschool funds to other programs.
