

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Georgia

Grantee	City	Contact	Award Year	Year One Award	Program Description
Berrien County Board of Education	Nashville	Gary Chapman	2002	$118,385	The Berrien County Collaborative's 21st Century grant is providing an after school program for grades six through eight in Nashville, Georgia. This program includes: homework assistance; enrichment math, reading, and science workshops; cultural arts.
Board of Public Education for Bibb Co.	Macon	Julie Holloway	2003	$429,287	Macon SEEDS (Success through Educational Enrichment Delivery Systems) seeks to address the need for afterschool and summer programs defined by the high incidences of juvenile crime, teen pregnancy and students critically below standard academic performance.
Bulloch County Board of Education	Statesboro	Catherine Hendrix	2003	$833,362	Nine participating schools will have tutoring component for a minimum of 5 hours a week. The tutoring population is made of students identified for remedial education and academic enrichment directly related to Ga's curriculum standards.
Butts County Schools	Jackson	Sheree Bryant	2002	$133,838	Our project involves two of our elementary schools and operates to increase student academic achievement through remedial and enrichment programs for Butts County elementary students who are at risk for failure in school.
Catoosa County Schools	Tunnel Hill	Wendy Ingram	2002	$147,690	The Tiger T.R.I.B.E. project provides for afterschool enrichment in Math and Reading as well as recreational opportunities for the children of Tiger Creek Elementary.
Catoosa County Schools	Ringgold	Donna Jackson	2003	$435,576	Paws & Claws After School keeps children safe, helps working families, and provides academic and enrichment services to primary and elementary age children. We pride ourselves as a gathering place that engages youth in activities which promote learning.
Chattooga County School System	Summerville	Diane Poole	2002	$256,069	Chattooga County School System's 21st CCLC program has three components for five school sites: an after school program; a summer school program; and a family literacy program. The after/summer school programs provide academic assistance and enrichment activities.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Georgia

City of Decatur	Decatur	Marian Melton	2003	$668,360	A partnership between City Schools of Decatur and Decatur Recreation Department provides afterschool enrichment, technology instruction, tutorial and care for children in pre-k through eighth grades at 3 elementary and one middle school.
Clarke County School District	Athens	Suzanne Kennedy	2002	$95,224	Pathways to Success Program (PSP) is implemented in 4 middle schools with 90% of the staff state certified teachers. The extended day instruction is taught through project based learning which provides a rigorous and relevant curriculum to all students.
Coastal Plain RESA/Tift County	Tifton	Stephanie Alexander	2003	$998,627	Tift 21st CCLC provides academic enrichment, youth development, and family activities at 7 primary and elementary schools in rural south Georgia.
Colquitt/Miller Arts Council, Inc.	Colquitt	Laura Hall	2003	$398,863	Our program is designed primarily as a tutorial based program for students behind in reading and math. Art is an integral part of our program and students attend art one day per week.
Communities In Schools of Colquitt County, Inc	Moultrie	Denise Bell	2004	$689,432	The project serves 180 children across 5 community-based centers located throughout Colquitt County. No significant changes in circumstances, achievements, or barriers have been encountered.
Crawford County Board of Education	Roberta	John Douglas	2004	$839,946	The Crawford County CCLC project is a comprehensive youth development and support effort that uses multiple partners to bring about a wrap-around platform for the identified needs of the youth. It marries academic support with character and leadership development.
Crisp County School System	Cordele	Connie Peeples	2004	$525,000	We have an afterschool and summer program at two elementary and one middle school sites. Each student receives instruction in reading and math each day and also participates in computer lab and activity classes.
Dade County School System	Trenton	Ronda Hamilton	2002	$307,068	The Dade County After School Program is intended to extend the regular school day and provide those alternatives to education not afforded during the regular school day.
Decatur County Schools	Bainbridge	John Hinson	2003	$680,845	We provide after-school remediation, acceleration, and enrichment to at risk students at three of our NI elementary schools. Our greatest obstacle has been parent involvement.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Georgia

DeKalb County School System	Decatur	Mindy DiSalvo	2002	$768,274	Our afterschool program operated 5 days per week during the 2003-04 school year in 35 elementary schools across four public school systems: DeKalb, Fulton, Newton, and Atlanta Public Schools. Our goal is to provide academic enrichment and tutorial service.
Dodge Board Of Education	Eastman	Jeanette Cadwell	2002	$306,982	Our initiative includes a variety of activities during after school, summer and weekend programming at four sites. These sites include: North Dodge Elementary School, South Dodge Elementary School, Dodge County Middle School and the Dodge County B&G Club
Douglas County School System	Douglasville	Mitzi Teal	2004	$698,231	Douglas County Schools and our co-applicant partner, Communities in Schools (CIS), a part of the CORE community collaborative of Douglas County have joined forces to form SMART: Students Maximizing Afterschool Resource Time
Early County School System	Blakely	Gwen Houston	2003	$376,180	We offer academic and enrichment opportunities to poverty ridden students who are low achievers and have no access to these opportunities. We are working on building positive self esteem and changing attitudes about school and achievement.
Floyd County Board of Education	Rome	Jamie Massey	2002	$556,614	The Floyd County Board of Education has established three 21st Century Community Learning Centers to increase student academic achievement and family development in the rural communities of Alto Park, Cave Spring, and Pepperell.
FSC/Safe Haven-3:00 Project	Stone Mtn	Rev.H.L. White	2003	$555,058	The Safe Haven-3:00 project is an after school achievement based student and family services support program. With 100 students primarily African American, from metro Atlanta area's low-achieving Title 1 schools, that have been identified as Needs Improvement.
Georgia Department of Juvenile Justice	Decatur	John Rickicki	2002	$175,000	Primarily provide After-School Program activities to incarcerated youth. Introduced Community Schools to the program. Department is in a change mode and the program must be very flexible and adapt to change.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Georgia

Greene County Schools	Greensboro	Bonnie Morrison	2002	$185,200	Our afterschool program operates 4 days per week in two Greene County elementary schools: Jackson and North Mulberry. Our goal is to provide academic enrichment and tutorial services to vulnerable students.
Hall County YMCA, Inc.	Gainsville	Mike E. Brown	2002	$317,988	The 21st CCLC program assists in meeting the needs of K-5 students and their families by providing them opportunities to develop educationally and socially through enrichment classes and programs.
Jeff Davis Board of Education	Hazlehurst, GA	Saralyn Stapleton	2004	$607,121	Project ExCITE is a joint effort between the Jeff Davis County Board of Education and Jeff Davis Family Connections. It allows Jeff Davis county students and their families to EXplore Cultural, Instructional, and Technological Experiences.
Jenkins County Board of Education	Millen	Julie Chance	2003	$488,600	Our 21st CCLC program provides credit recovery, academic improvement, and enrichment opportunities for students before/after school and during summer months.
Johnson County Board of Education	Wrightsville	Barbara Spurlock	2004	$175,000	The Johnson County CCLC project is designed to respond to youth development needs on physical, emotional, and intellectual dimensions.
Marietta City Schools	Marietta	Rona Roberts	2004	$175,000	Collaboration between Marietta City Schools and the Anderson Boys and Girls Club of Marietta to provide students at the 7th and 8th grade after-school academic and cultural enrichment opportunities.
McDuffie County Board of Education	Thomson	Luci Linnenkohl	2002	$583,346	The 21st Century Community Learning Center sites at Dearing Elementary, Thomson Elementary, Norris Elementary and Thomson Middle School are all designed to develop the whole person through academics, socialization, character building, physical fitness.
Meriwether County Board of Education	Greenville	Christopher Wilson	2004	$875,000	This comprehensive program will increase learning opportunities and coordinate existing community resources to promote positive health, social, and psychological outcomes for 540 (108 per center) disadvantaged K-8 students and their families.
Morehouse School of Medicine	Atlanta	Mary Langley	2002	$645,640	The Health Promotion Resource Center (HPRC) at the Morehouse School of Medicine (MSM), Clay County Board of Education (CCBE), and Stewart County Board of Education (SCBE) in partnership with Quitman County Board of Education (QCBE).

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Georgia

Muscogee County School District	Columbus	Arline Kitchen	2004	$605,487	SACK 21st CCLC provides tutorial and enrichment services to 7 sites and one Faith Based/CBO Adult Education site. After school hours of operation are 4 days a week from 3:00-6:00pm, Fridays are for special events or Staff Development training.
Rabun County School System	Clayton	Laverne Beck	2003	$718,928	The Rabun County 21st CCLC project established an after school program and four-week full day summer program of extended academic instruction and enrichment activities that serve grade k-8 students from four poverty impacted schools.
Randolph County School System	Cuthbert	Debra Heath	2003	$319,935	Our project served any students (and their parents) who applied in grades 3-8 at three sites- Andrew College, Randolph Elementary, and Randolph-Clay Middle. Adult literacy, homework help, enrichment, and accelerated remediation in technology, math, science.
Richmond County Board of Education	Augusta	Kay A Crawford, ED	2003	$900,580	The Family Academics for Mentoring Innovative Life and Youth Development (FAMILY) is a collaborative partnership between the Richmond County Board of Education (RCBOE), Augusta State University (ASU), Augusta Technical College and Family Connections.
Savannah-Chatham County Public Schools	Savannah	LaWanda Ransom	2004	$1,399,923	The program serves at-risk students from 13 schools at 8 sites; 4 middle schools and 4 elementary schools. The Spring Break intercession is being reviewed for modifications based on program changes by the district.
Spelman College	Atlanta	Pauline Drake	2003	$487,791	Project Nobility is a partnership between Spelman College and Brown Middle School to facilitate a 21st Century Community Learning Center. The center integrates character development into afterschool.
Stephens County School System	Toccoa	Carol Booth	2003	$538,430	We provide summer school for 220 elementary school aged students. Our academic focus is reading, mathematics, and writing. Enrichment activities in science,arts, technology, and sports are offered each afternoon.
Sumter County Schools	Americus	Mary Anne Jones	2003	$548,552	The project is a collaborative formed by Sumter Co. Schools, Boys and Girls clubs, and Methodist Home for Children and Youth. Children at 12 sites are served.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Georgia

Taylor County Board of Education	Butler	Nancy Peacock	2004	$468,674	We have 3 learning centers, Upper Elementary, Middle, and High Schools in Taylor County. We provide an after school program for at risk children in grades 1st through 12th.
Tennis in the 'Hood, Inc.	Fayetteville	Jinaki Wilson	2003	$175,580	Tennis In The 'Hood after-school learning center focuses on providing academic-direct teaching, academic enrichment-indirect teaching, physical fitness/tennis and intervention/leadership skills to elementary age youth.
Terrell County Schools	Dawson	Shirley Jones	2004	$350,000	Terrell County Schools' 21st CCLC program addresses the literacy and related educational needs of our students and families. The majority of workshops and clinics focus on competency in reading, math, and science with some academic enrichment in language.
Turner County Board of Education	Ashburn	Gloria Pylant	2004	$348,554	The Turner County 21st Century Community Learning Center Initiative is targeting 200 at-risk students, in grades K-8, and their parents, at two sites (elementary and middle schools).
Twiggs County Public Schools	Jeffersonville	Carol Brown	2003	$911,380	The Twiggs County 21st Century project is a 4-8 after school program with a family literacy component that includes the siblings and family members of the students.
Union County Schools	Blairsville	Dana Stephens-Cra	2004	$525,000	We are a 3-site afterschool and summer program focusing heavily on academic achievement and improvement as well as enrichment classes such as fine arts, technology and recreation. We believe that each child needs an opportunity to shine.
Walton County Public Schools	Monroe	Rita Dickinson	2003	$280,864	The LEAP program provides academic & enrichment activities in an extended-day and extended year setting. The program operates after school, on Saturdays, during intersessions, and during the summer months.
Webster County Board of Commissioners	Preston	Dwanna Carter	2002	$98,159	Webster Co. 21stCCLC is an after-school program that serves grades k-8 at Webster County Elementary.