

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Maine

| Grantee | City | Contact | Award Year | Year One Award | Program Description |
|---|----------------|--------------------|-------------------|-----------------------|---|
| Auburn School Department - ELPM Alternative | Auburn | Scott Gowell | 2004 | $133,603 | The Auburn School Dept. is expanding its pilot project ELPM which allows students to earn credit towards a high school diploma. |
| Auburn School Dept | Auburn | Luci Merin | 2003 | $150,000 | In partnership with other programs and organizations, Auburn's Community Learning Center will continue serving the middle school level youth and their families with safe care, and will work to strengthen the academic, recreational, and service, and areas. |
| Caribou School Dept | Caribou | Beth Alden | 2003 | $149,782 | Our program is in support of an extended school day and year for students with academic, social, emotional, physical, or nutritional needs. Our students' needs have been identified in collaboration with Title IA, administrative, special education, adult ed. |
| Caswell School Department | Danforth | Rhonda Irish | 2004 | $149,914 | The overall goal of this proposed program is to assist students who are low achieving and who need assistance in meeting and exceeding the MLR and who are in need of enrichment activities to enhance their learning environment. |
| Ellsworth School Department - 2 | Ellsworth | Katrina Kane | 2004 | $150,000 | Our goal is that 100% of grades 6-12 students will meet or exceed the standards of the MLR in reading, writing, and math. The philosophy of the standards is "all means all" and any less is simply not good enough. |
| Ellsworth School Dept | Ellsworth | Katrina Kane | 2003 | $150,000 | Project Advance is designed to address needs which include low MEA scores; youth behavior issues; underutilization of cultural and recreational opportunities and health issues; and a significant population of impoverished families. |
| Fiddlehead Center for the Arts - 2 | New Gloucester | Jacinda Cotton-Cas | 2004 | $145,756 | To provide an educational partnership to provide a safe, caring environment where all opportunities to learn, succeed and grow. |
| Fiddlehead Center for the Arts | New Gloucester | Jacinda Cotton-Cas | 2003 | $150,000 | The program was designed to keep children and youth out of trouble and engaged in activities that help them learn and discover their true potentials. The program has been designed with the expectations of reaching learning goals and lowering risk factors. |
| Greater Waterville Communities for Children | Waterville | Bryant Rollins | 2003 | $149,627 | To target priority risk factors and low assets in children and youth through comprehensive, effective programs during non-school hours. |

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Maine

| | | | | | |
|------------------------------------|----------------|----------------------|------|-----------|--|
| Maine Family Resource Center/CSD 9 | Danforth | Rhonda Irish | 2004 | $149,820 | To assist students at risk of educational failure to succeed in school and to meet and exceed the MLR standards through activities for children youth in the community. |
| Maine Seacoast Missionary Society | Cherryfield | Mr. Charlie Harringt | 2003 | $150,000 | The EdGe will provide after shcool and summer academic, enrichment, and recreational programming for youth in the 5th-8th grades, with a particular focus on students at-risk of educational failure. |
| MSAD 11 | Gardiner | Holly Jordan | 2003 | $142,164 | This program focuses on coordinating programs with the school distric's efforts to meet the Learning Results standards in the areas of math, science, and literacy for 6 9th graders. |
| MSAD 12 | Jackman | Jenn Conrad | 2004 | $150,000 | The program is designed to provide children and parents with educational and heath improvement after school and throughout the summer. Our goals are linked to the concepts, linked to the Learning Results. |
| MSAD 17 - 2 | Oxford | Luba Green | 2004 | $131,492 | Our project will serve children from 4 elementary schools within SAD 17. ILPs will be developed for targeted children, which will guide interventions necessary for each child. |
| MSAD 17 | Oxford | Kathy Elkins | 2003 | $150,000 | To provide capability to offer academic enrichment and to start school aged child care programs that will become their own private organizations. |
| MSAD 20 | Fort Fairfield | Karen Saenger | 2004 | $146,130 | Fort Fairfield's CCLC will provide a safe, nuturing environment where students will want to play and learn. Third through eighth grades will be targeted, and will be provided with tutoring, mentoring, and rich recreational and cultural experiences. |
| MSAD 21 | Dixfield | Thomas B. Starratt | 2004 | $128,110 | Our program will provide additional opportunities for academic growth to all of our students. In addition to helping to improve reading and math scores and other academic areas. |
| MSAD 26 | Hancock | Dawn McPhail | 2003 | $150,000 | The project will provide learning opportunities for students in grades 2 through 8 in the form of tutorial services to help students meet state and local standareds in reading and math as well as enrichment services an average of 15 hours per week. |

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Maine

| | | | | | |
|-------------------------|--------------|------------------|------|-----------|---|
| MSAD 3 | Unity | Carol McGovern | 2003 | $150,000 | SAD 3 community schools and its partners propose to create unique 21st CCLC whose combination of extended day and year-round programs will address the root causes of drug use, obesity, and unrealized human academic potential. |
| MSAD 4 | Guilford | Crystal Priest | 2004 | $150,000 | Our program will provide increased access to authentic, project-based learning for all K-12 students and members of the community to improve academic achievement, promote emotional and social well-being. |
| MSAD 40/Youth's Promise | Warren | Theresa Burleson | 2004 | $149,854 | The goal is to plan, coordinate, implement and asses an integrated program expanding access to learning opportunities in our communities. |
| MSAD 43 | Mexico | Sarah Coolidge | 2004 | $135,015 | Program will include tutorial and homework help, healthy snacks, recreational activities,innovative research-based instruction in Math and Science, and a Big Brother/Sister to provide one-on-one attention. |
| MSAD 44 | Bethel | Julie Hart | 2003 | $117,358 | This project is designed for grades K-8 and their families. It emphasizes literacy and academic acceleration rrough academic and life shill developmental curriculum. |
| MSAD 55 | Hiram | Miriam Englund | 2003 | $150,000 | This project is intended to serve the at-risk students and their families, from Grads 4-12. There has been an increase in population, with an increasing number of poverty level families, and an increase in minotiry students. |
| MSAD 59 | Madison | Rob Saucier | 2003 | $142,164 | The goal of the project is to improve educational outcomes, raise technology proficiency, and porvide cultural, mentoring and recreational activities in a safe nurturing environment. |
| MSAD 77 | East Machias | Darlene Wheeler | 2004 | $150,000 | To assist elementary and middle school students in meeting the MLR while offering age-appropriate, interesting enrichment activities ins a safe environment. |
| MSAD 9 | Farmington | Wendy Oakley | 2003 | $149,974 | Through CLUE (Creative Learning Unlimited Excellence) gives low-performing students a chance to demonstrate academic improvement by participating in a hands-on, active and fully developed curriculum and will give them an opportunity to demonstrate teamwork. |

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Maine

| | | | | | |
|----------------------------------|----------------|----------------------|------|-----------|---|
| Nothern York County Family YMCA | Biddeford | Andy Greif | 2003 | $149,696 | The Northern York County Family YMCA, in partnership with the Biddeford School Department will provide academic support, enrichment activities, recreational activities, family literacy, and summer programs in an effort to improve student achievement. |
| Portland Public Schools - Reiche | Portland | Matt Skehan | 2004 | $150,000 | Our overall goal is to enable students to attain high academic standards in reading and mathematics. Activities will focus on literacy development, technology education, health and safety, cultural enrichment, recreation, and parent involvement and education. |
| Portland Public Schools | Portland | Susan Levine, Site C | 2003 | $150,000 | The overall goal of the program is to enable students, through expanded learning opportunities after school and in the summer, to attain high academic standards in reading and math as defined in Portland and the State of Maine Learning Results. |
| Raymond School Department | Raymond | Lynn-Eve Davis | 2003 | $100,000 | Our overall goal is to prepare each child for a global society that is evolving and dynamic. With a strong foundation in basic knowledge, students will be effective communicators, and independent thinkers and problem solvers who exhibit evidence of emotion. |
| River Coalition, Inc. - 2 | Old Town | Mike Crooker | 2004 | $150,000 | Our program will address academic failure by offering hands on math and science programs. It will also address character education and ease transitions from one school to another that can get in the way of academic progress. |
| River Coalition, Inc. | Old Town | C. Shawn Yardley | 2003 | $150,000 | This program is a community-driven, primary prevention group that works to reduce incidences of teen pregnancy, substance abuse, juvenile delinquency, violence, and school drop-outs. |
| Sanford Public Schools | Sanford | Linda Huber | 2004 | $150,000 | Our services will be offered 4 days per week for two hours at the targeted schools. At each site, students will follow a research-proven schedule of: snack, tutoring, supervised homework, physical activity and academic enrichment. |
| South Portland School Dept. | South Portland | Wendy Houlihan | 2003 | $143,923 | South Portland SD, the B&G Club and the Portland Parks and Rec. department will provide extended day, extended year and family literacy opportunities to low achieving and limited English proficient students in grades 2-7, and their families. |

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Maine

| | | | | | |
|---|-----------|----------------|------|-----------|---|
| Westbrook School Department/Windham School Department | Windham | Pender Kimball | 2004 | $148,654 | Our project will include: Restorative Learning Program designed for expelled and suspended students, Teen Aspiration Project, adventure-based summer school with focus on math/reading/writing remediation and tutoring based on MLR, and monthly parent dinners. |
| Wiscasset School Department | Wiscasset | Emily Thompson | 2004 | $150,000 | Programming will include a broad array of activities that target both social and academic development. Activities will include crafts, plays, reading aloud, computer use, math and science will be studied in small groups. |