

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Minnesota

Grantee	City	Contact	Award Year	Year One Award	Program Description
Barnum ISD #91	Barnum	Meg Saarela	2004	$88,626	21cclc funds the Barnum Youth Center. The Youth Center is a drop-in center for students 4th-12th grade. The Youth Center provides homework help, service learning projects, enrichment opportunities and activities promoting youth leadership and self-esteem.
Bemidji ISD #31	Bemidji	John D Buckanaga	2003	$148,853	Licensed and trained tutor/mentors will build positive relationships with students engaged in the After-school program. The students will be in need of assistance in either reading or math.
Bloomington ISD #271	Bloomington	Suzanne Kpowulu	2004	$182,029	Galaxy serves all middle school youth in the City of Bloomington and provides focused services for youth who are struggling academically and who have poor school attendance. Galaxy offers homework assistance and tutoring, fun and engaging learning activities.
Boys & Girls Clubs of the Leech Lake Area	Cass Lake	Tuleah Palmer	2003	$191,286	Implement Project Learn, a comprehensive and research based programming strategy, a minimum of 50 hours per week during non school hours in 1st - 12th grade.
Columbia Heights ISD #13	Columbia Heights	Kristin Gast	2003	$180,000	The Columbia Heights 21st Century program is focused on helping students with academic achievement and exposing them to fine arts. The program started at the middle school and expanded to the elementary programs through the grant.
Duluth Area Family YMCA	Duluth	Tracie Clanaugh	2004	$381,823	The Duluth Area Family in partnership with the Duluth School District and the Grant Community School Collaborative,(and other community partners) is offering 21st CCLC's at three economically distressed elementary schools in Duluth.
Fond du Lac Reservation	Cloquet	Roberta Welper	2003	$100,000	The Fond du Lac Ojibwe School and Cloquet Public School will increase the availability of and participation in programs that offer a broad range of high quality educational, developmental, and recreational activities.
Isle Schools ISD #473	Isle	Sue Lyback-Dahl	2003	$50,000	The IREC provides after-school academic support and activities to youth in grades 6-8 through our program called Teentime;. The Isle Latchkey Kid's Club provides supervised after-school activities for youth in grades K-6.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Minnesota

Mankato ISD #77 Community Services/Recreation Dept.	Mankato	Joan Eisenreich	2003	$312,000	Students at risk of academic failure in grades 3-8, including students with disabilities, limited English proficiency (LEP), and other barriers to academic success will be targeted and referred to the 21st CCLC by school principals, teachers, counselors.
McGregor Schools ISD #4	McGregor	Cheryl Meld	2003	$103,122	Beyond the Classroom utilizes out of school time to enhance the attendance and academic performance of students deemed at risk for dropping out of school or lack of connectedness to school.
Metro Collaborative BLAST	Rockford	Marie Flanary	2004	$554,416	The 21st Century Learning Centers grant is a collaboration of one rural school district (Rockford) and three inner city charter schools, the University of St. Thomas and five partner agencies.
Minneapolis Schools #001 Community Education	Minneapolis	Colleen Sanders	2004	$479,804	Minneapolis Schools and its partners will continue very successful programs, all situated in the highest poverty neighborhoods in Minneapolis. The centers serve students and their families with an array of services.
Minnesota Department of Corrections-Red Wing, Maginnis High School District 1100-60-017	Red Wing	Avis Lind	2004	$96,559	The project is designed to assist adolescent male juvenile offenders improve their school attendance, increase their reading and/or math skills, and engage them in enrichment activities such as art, theatre, community service, and driver's education.
Mpls ISD #001	Minneapolis	Colleen Sanders	2003	$550,000	Minneapolis schools and its partners will continue very successful programs, all situated in the highest poverty neighborhoods in Minneapolis. the centers serve students and their families with an array of services.
Neighborhood House	St Paul	Rena Oswald-And	2003	$199,435	Neighborhood House and six schools serving ethnically diverse K-12 students in urban St. Paul provide a continuum of prevention and intervention activities targeting 1,185 low income youth.
Nett Lake ISD #707	Nett Lake	Julie Whiteman	2003	$55,147	Our project will provide enrichment activities for 110 Nett Lake youths after school and during vacations. We will monitor the attendance of all students and reward students who have excellent attendance quarterly.
Northland Area Family Service Center	Longville	Shannon Rivard	2004	$230,482	To improve academic achievement for participating students in ISD #188. We have a large at-risk population for whom these services are targeted.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Minnesota

Osseo ISD #279	Brooklyn Park	Lisa Greene	2003	$221,125	Through this grant, we provide academic, enrichment and recreation opportunities for students attending Zanewood Community School, Fair Oaks Elementary School, Park Brook Elementary School and North View Junior High.
Osseo ISD #279	Brooklyn Park	Lisa Greene	2004	$241,247	Through this grant, we provide academic, enrichment and recreation opportunities for students attending Zanewood Community School, Fair Oaks Elementary School, Park Brook Elementary School, Crest View Elementary School and North View Junior High.
Ottertail-Wadena Community Action Council	Verndale	Susan Estabrooks-A	2004	$237,913	The Verndale 21st Century PEP Club provides after-school enrichment activities for students in grades K-6 and for Kindergarten children on their non-kindergarten days.
Park Promise	New Brighton	Perry Lofquist	2004	$114,844	Park Promise is an academic based after-school program for youth residing at a large scale privately owned and operated affordable housing community.
Perspectives Inc	St. Louis Park	Georgia Rowland	2003	$50,543	Kids Connection is an educational and social enrichment program for homeless and at-risk kids. Our program is designed as a combined educational and nutritional program to increase our children's chances for success by improving their self-esteem.
Pillager Family Council	Pillager	Betty Doss	2004	$105,750	The Pillager Family Center and the Pillager School district, through this grant, will help to improve out-of-school programming and increase age appropriate opportunities for youth in the Pillager area.
Pine Point ISD #25	Thief River Fall	Faye Auchenpaugh	2004	$567,764	The Pine Point ISD #25 project provides year-round programming for students and adults at three sites on the White Earth Indian Reservation. Services include educational, recreational, community service, and cultural activities.
Robbinsdale Schools ISD #281	New Hope	Jackie Fraedrich	2003	$154,757	Extended day small group (6-8 students literacy program for 1-3 grade students. Summer Academic Jump Start Program for Incoming K-3 students.
Rochester Community Education, ISD #535	Rochester	Jackie Silver	2004	$241,872	Rochester 21stCCL Program is collaboration between The Rochester Public Schools Community Education and Title 1 Programs and the Boys and Girls Club. Goals of the program include improved attendance, behavior, class work and access to enrichment activities.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Minnesota

Rochester ISD #535	Rochester	Jackie Silver	2003	$210,000	Rochester 21stCCL Program is collaboration between The Rochester Public Schools Community Education and Title 1 Programs and the Boys and Girls Club. Goals of the program include improved attendance, behavior, class work and access to enrichment activities.
Roosevelt Elementary School	Faribault	Ruth Collins	2004	$299,993	Kids Connection: A Family / School Partnership will use demonstrated national standards to increase academic achievement in reading and math to improve school attendance and relationships for students at Roosevelt Elementary.
Saint Paul Public Schools 21st Century Community Learning Centers Grant Cohort 2	St. Paul	Lee Litman	2004	$459,988	Building on the experience and success of previous 21st CCLC projects, Saint Paul Public Schools will partner with the District Area Learning Center, Title 1 and community-based organizations to expand out-of-school time academic support.
St Cloud ISD #742	Waite Park	Joni Olson	2003	$195,613	The 21st Century Kids Club provides safe educational, recreational and arts-based after school programming for students in Grades 5-6 at Talahi and Discovery Community Schools.
St Paul Schools ISD #625	St Paul	Lee Litman	2003	$500,000	Saint Paul Public Schools 21st CCLC grant provides academic and enrichment activities in cooperation with numerous community partners for youth at four elementary school sites during non-school hours.
St. Paul Area Council of Churches	Saint Paul	Rev. Darcel Hill	2004	$474,121	Project SPIRIT/Freedom school aims to provide academic and enrichment activities through after-school and summer programming, so that African-American and African-immigrant children improve their academic performance, enhance self-esteem.
Urban Ventures Leadership Foundation	Minneapolis	Mark-Peter Lundqui	2004	$75,000	The Learning Lab is determined improves the lives of disadvantaged school-age children from the most economically challenged neighborhoods in all of Minnesota, by building their life skills through educational development.
Wheaton Area Schools ISD #803	Wheaton	Erin Gillespie	2004	$209,252	Connections Before, After School and Summer programs will have an immediate and notable impact on four rural school districts in West Central Minnesota. This project will serve over 292 youth while providing youth in grades K - 8 with a safe environment.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Minnesota

Willmar ISD #347	Willmar	Ann Rislov	2003	$185,980	Willmar Community Education & Recreation and Willmar Public Schools are providing before and after school, as well as summer academic and enriching opportunities to at-risk students.
Worthington ISD #518	Worthington	Jerry Fiola	2003	$183,516	By cooperating with other school district and community programs, the Worthington 21st Century Community Learning Center project offers after-school programming to students in grade K-8 at two different school sites.
YES! - Onamia Public Schools ISD #480	Onamia	Lonna Becker	2004	$98,469	To extend and enhance the current after school program, targeting students who show need in at least one academic field and provide services for students who need additional social and emotional support.
YMCA of Metropolitan Mpls	Minneapolis	Doris Baylor	2003	$433,830	The Minneapolis Beacons Project is a community-driven collaborative that includes the YMCA, YWCA, Boys & Girls Club, Minneapolis Public Schools, community leaders, youth and families working together to improve student academic, social and lifework development.