

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Mississippi

Grantee	City	Contact	Award Year	Year One Award	Program Description
100 Black Men of Jackson, Inc.	Jackson	Maxine Lyles	2004	$242,767	Project JUMP 21st Century Community Learning Center serves students at Barr Elementary School, Jim Hill High School, and Lanier High School in an after-school program and various summer activities including Camp 100, a seven week summer camp.
Alcorn County School District	Corinth	Jean McFarland	2004	$448,354	The Consortium's proposal is designed to address the needs of a two-county area (Alcorn and Prentiss) served by four public school districts. The project includes after-school and summer academic and enrichment programs and activities.
Amite County School District	Liberty	Mary Russ	2004	$199,254	The Amite County Community Learning Center Program consists of the following Components: Before- and after-school and summer recess activities.
Amory School District	Amory	Susan Martin	2002	$461,096	Amory's project provides after-school and summer tutoring, enrichment, and literacy/media nights at all four school sites. Additionally, services are provided at one community site and several faith-based sites.
Benoit School District	BENOIT	SUZANNE HAWLEY	2004	$109,341	THIS GRANT ALLOWS US TO OFFER AFTER SCHOOL TUTORIALS FOR LOW PERFORMING STUDENTS AND OTHER STUDENTS IF THEY NEED ADDITIONAL INSTRUCTION.
Boys and Girls Club of Central Mississippi	Jackson	Bob Ward	2004	$170,000	To provide a math & reading skill program to maintain or enhance present skill levels. Provide a program to develop self-discipline, and self-esteem. Help members develop skills to score proficiently or above on the Miss Curriculum Test.
Boys and Girls Club of MS-LOU, Inc.	Natchez	R. Fay Minor	2004	$124,423	Believe Achieve, the 21st Century program of the Boys & Girls Club of the Miss-Lou, Inc., targets academic enrichment, character and leadership-buiding, cultural enrichment, and physical fitness.
Chickasaw County School District	Houlka	Betsy Collums	2004	$112,112	This project is an extended school day and extended year program that provides remediation or tutorial assistance in core academic areas for students in grades K - 8. Tutorial assistance is also available for high school students.
Choctaw County School District	Ackerman	Charlotte Cornish	2004	$374,984	The Outfitters for Life after-school program was implemented at Ackerman Elementary and Louisville Elementary in the Fall 2004 through Spring 2005.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Mississippi

Cleveland School District	Cleveland	Terry Davis	2004	$100,000	This project provides tutorial assistance and fine arts (music and art) experiences to students. Students who were retaking the state benchmark test in math did significantly better than students who were not attending the 21st Century program.
Columbus School District	Columbus	Martha Liddell	2004	$100,000	Services for Columbus Municipal School District 21st Century Community Learning Centers program are being implemented on the campus of Hunt Intermediate School (Hunt).
Communities in Schools of Jackson, MS	Jackson	Gwen Gardner	2004	$114,260	The 21st Century Afterschool Program serves 100 students in grades pre-k-5, five days a week. The primary focus of the program is academics. Students are engaged in activities that reinforce the benchmarks/objectives from district and state.
Copiah County School District	Hazlehurst	Vicki Olier	2004	$183,994	To provide a safe place for students who otherwise would come home to parents who are not supportive of the educational and emotional well-being of their children or to homes that have no parents. We are constantly asked for places in the program.
Covington County School District	Collin	H Milloy	2004	$190,521	Our project provides an after school program for students in grades kindergarten through sixth. Program components include academic reinforcement and enrichment of grade level skills, homework assistance, character development, good nutrition awareness.
Crudup Ward Activity Center	Forest	Debra Lowery	2004	$120,000	Our 21st Century program is designed to address the academic and social needs of our students. The focus of the project is academic growth and social growth through tutorial and character education activities.
Genesis and Light Center	Jackson	Albert Wilson	2004	$100,000	Genesis & Light Center provided tutoring, mentoring, counseling, educational assistance, arts and crafts, drama and dance, and extracurricular/enrichment activities to low income at-risk youth, all free of charge.
George County	Lucedale	Ms. Barbara Cochra	2003	$263,140	1. important extended time provided for assistance toward the improvement of academic achievement. 2. The program provides enrichment and cultural experiences. 3. Children are provided a safe, supervised environment.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Mississippi

Greenville School District	Greenville	Lynda Hughes	2002	$805,194	This project brings vision to the students and adults of Washington County Mississippi; intends to raise hope and self-help; and develops individual competence in academic skills, and put these skills to work with other common skills, knowledge, partnership.
Houston School District	Houston	Ms. Leigh Mobley	2003	$314,210	Our Project has four componets; Extended Day, Extended Year, 2 classes of 4-year old Kindergarten and Community Theatre. All components are designed to provide students with extra help and resources needed to increase academic achievement and success.
Humphreys County School District	Belzoni	Bonnie Horton	2004	$185,274	This project provides academic assistance and enrichment activities for students/families impacted by economic distress, academic failure, and lack of an environment conducive to positive behavior.
Jackson Public School District	Jackson	Brenda Powell	2004	$180,316	Our 21st CCLC project focuses on academic areas of reading, language, math and science supported by Learning MileStones to assess and prescribe learning outcomes. Our collaborators provide the necessary cultural arts, ballet, music and other enriching activities.
James C. Rosser Elementary School	Moorhead	Kimberly Andrews	2004	$114,910	Our program assists students in grades third through fifth through afterschool tutoring. The program includes math, reading, and recreational activities.
Laurel School District - 7/04	Laurel	Kenda Covington	2004	$187,500	The Laurel School District is providing after-school and summer academic and enrichment activities for at risk youth. There have been no significant changes to our program.
Laurel School District - 12/02	Laurel	Kenda Covington	2002	$161,694	The Laurel School District is providing after-school and summer academic and enrichment activities for at risk youth. There have been no significant changes to our program.
Lawrence County School District	Monticello	Ilene Huguley	2004	$319,401	The 21st CCLC Program for Lawrence County School District focus lies in providing academically based after-school prgrams for students in grades 1-12. The collaboration with the South Central Mississippi Boys and Girls Club and Lawrence County.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Mississippi

Leflore County School District	Greenwood	Tommy Spells	2004	$181,954	This project provides tutoring to students at risk of academic failure and/or scored minimal or basic on the state mandated tests. In provides fine arts, technology, and recreational activities as well as a literacy program for parents.
McComb School District	McComb	Monique Gilmore	2004	$375,000	The McComb School District's Community Learning Centers has 12 learning center which serve more than 400 students. 5 school sites, 3 community organizations and 4 faith-based organizations partner with us to serve our children.
Meridian School District	Meridian	Gretchen Luvane	2004	$212,412	The 21stCCLC grant will provide services to students who attend three schools in the Meridian Public School District. These students have after-school programs three afternoons a week and summer school programs.
Mississippi Valley State University	Itta Bena	Lurese Terrell	2004	$172,508	The MVSU 21st Century Program is an primarily an after-school program geared at targeting at-risk 7th and 8th grade students in two local school districts. While one of the primary objectives of the program is to improve grades and test scores.
Moss Point School District	Moss Point	Mary Kate Garvin	2004	$187,500	One-on-one tutoring, the science focus activities additional hours in an instructional setting, and activities to promote positive attitudes and responsible habits are fully expected to result in student achievement.
Nettleton School District	Nettleton	Louis Rowles	2004	$146,108	The Nettleton Schools Learning Center provides academic tutorial and intervention help for students who need extra help in succeeding in their work. An added dimension of the learning center is to provide enrichment activities including technology, art.
North Bolivar Schools	Shelby	Mechelle Martin	2003	$499,800	Our project serves those students in K-8, based on each district's local need, who are at highest risk of educational failure. Four hundred students are expected to be served during the regular school year, with a total of 550 participating in after-school program.
North MS Consortium (New Albany-Fiscal grant)	New Albany	Henry Knox	2002	$743,694	The program offers remediation, re-teaching, and enrichment to students identified by their classroom teachers as at-risk for academic failure. The program strives to serve all students identified as needing assistance.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Mississippi

Okolona School District	Okolona, MS	Eddie Prather	2003	$197,390	The project is designed to meet the needs of students at risk for academic failure in the Aberdeen and Okolona School Districts. Student needs are met through the following services: before school tutoring, after school tutoring, and summer enrichment.
Operation Shoestring, Inc.	Jackson	Ivy Lovelady	2004	$110,813	"Under the Big Top" after-school program serves 100 children (pre-K through 5th grades) during the regular school year in 2 sites--a community-based organization and a local school. Primary emphasis on academic and the arts.
Perry County Schools	New Augusta	Ms. Katie Mae Yate	2003	$107,000	This program specifically targets students who are academically needy, based on the following factors:students in grades 4-8 performing below proficiency on the MCT assessment. Truant, suspended, or expelled students who need to improve in academic achievement.
Petal School District	Petal	Ms. Margaret Tynes	2002	$453,794	Project T.E.A.M. (Together Everyone Achieves More) provides an after/summer school program for students in grades K-12. Students receive tutoring by certified teachers in the subject areas which are tested by the state of Mississippi along with music, art.
Philadelphia School District	Philadelphia	Britt Dickens	2004	$100,000	Our grant focuses on after school programs at our high school and middle school which provide tutoring services for those students. Our summer programs at the elementary school provide remediation and enrichment programs.
Rankin County Schools	Brandon	Kameron Ball	2002	$561,994	The Rankin County School District is partnering with the Mississippi Boys and Girls Club of Central Mississippi to provide after school, and summer enrichment programs to low-income students.
Smith County Schools	Raleigh	Vianita Crumpton	2002	$312,394	The Smith County 21st Century Community Learning Centers Grant consists of three school sites and three faith-based sites. This grant is providing opportunities for at-risk students in grades 1-8 to improve academic achievement through extended day.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Mississippi

South Panola Schools	Batesville	Ms. Martha Lynn Jo	2003	$392,000	We are currently running after school programs in the Junior High, Middle School, Pope Feeder School, and Boys and Girls Club offering tutoring in reading and math. Our teachers also offer activities such as cooking, sports, guitar, art, etc.
South Tippah School District	Ripley	Kami Derrick	2004	$160,000	This program has an after-school tutorial program for grades one thru six emphasizing Reading and Math skills. We are also in conjunction with the North MS Boys and Girls Club which has an after-school program for youth.
Strawberry Plains Audubon Center	Holly Springs	Madge Lindsay	2004	$125,777	Our 21st Century afterschool project focuses on teaching children through nature with a focus on Math , Reading, and Science. We have had no barriers so far.
Tishomingo County Special Municipal School District	Iuka	Ms. Janice Cutshall	2003	$169,190	Our project provides academic tutorial assistance during the school year as well as two drama teams during the school year. During the summer, an enrichment camp is held for students grades K-7 at each middle school in the county.
Union Public Schools	Union	Mr. Ray Perry	2003	$99,792	Our program is an after school program that provides tutoring and remediation to students who are identified as scoring minimal or basic on the Mississippi Curriculum tests in either reading, math, or language.
Vicksburg/Warren Schools	Vicksburg	Laura Prather	2002	$208,094	The funds have been used to provide an after-school tutorial program for students who need assistance in academic subjects. They have also been used to provide a summer tutorial program and an enrichment program for the spring break.
Walthall County School District	Tylertown	Blanche Jones	2004	$133,409	This project will establish an after school program which provides both academic and extra-curricular activities for students in grades 2-8 four days a week. Students will be provided remediation of skills, homework assistance, expanded reading opportunities.
West Tallahatchie School District	Webb, MS	Patricia Bradshaw-F	2004	$300,457	The West Tallahatchie School District project is designed to provide after-school tutorial services for students in need of enhancement and remediation as evidenced by test results. Services are also provided in recreational activities.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Mississippi

Winona School District	Winona	Diane Green	2004	$197,942	The project provides quality academic experiences to students in an extended day, extended year format for the purpose of improving academic performance and providing organized extracurricular activities as well as opportunities for cultural enrichment.
Yazoo City School District Parent and Community Resource Center	Yazoo	Marilyn Hathorne	2004	$187,500	The program provide after school integrated educational, cultural and recreational services to students and families. The target population is preK-4th grade. The parents and students are doing better with their home work and core academic subjects.
Youth Opportunities Unlimited, Inc.	Marks	Ms. Evelyn W. Joss	2003	$128,980	The Y.O.U. 21st CCLC provides a diverse array of extra learning opportunities for youth residing in four rural communities by partnering with two rural school districts and numerous community based agencies, health centers and faith based organizations.