

21st Century Community Learning Grants in North Carolina

Grantee	City	Contact	Award Year	Year One Award	Program Description
Alamance-Burlington Schools (Cohort 2)	Graham	Marva Slade	2003	$499,989	This project uses 7 sites to create safe and accessible community learning centers for children, families and youth to strengthen academic skills, learn strategies for preventing drug use, and participate in activities that enhance the regular academic program.
Alexander County Schools (NW Three 21st Consortium- Cohort 1)	Sugar Grove	Bricca Prestridge S	2002	$299,786	This three-county rural Appalachian consortium provides authentic, experiential, place-based learning opportunities to reach low income 3rd-8th graders afterschool and during the summer. Our community and family involvement component is integral.
Ashe County (TRAC - Cohort 3)	Jefferson	Linda Blackburn	2004	$444,417	It is an afterschool program for Ashe County that targets Level I and II students in five sites, Kindergarten through 9th grade, in tutoring, enrichment, physical activity and social interaction.
Avery County (Toe River Learning Center- Cohort 4)	Newland	Steve Sneed	2005	$117,650	The ToeRiver Learning Center will serve rural, low-income 3rd - 8th graders who are at risk of academic failure. Services will be offered after school Monday-Friday. Program activities will include computer-based learning, individualized tutoring and homework help.
Avery County (WAMY- Cohort 3)	Newland	Michelle Wagoner	2004	$117,650	The ToeRiver Learning Center will serve rural, low-income 3rd - 8th graders who are at risk of academic failure. Services will be offered after school Monday-Friday. Program activities will include computer-based learning, individualized tutoring and homework help.
Beaufort (Episcopal Hispanic Ministries- Cohort 3)	Washington	Janet Rodman	2004	$277,319	Episcopal Hispanic Ministries has established a targeted program to meet the needs of at-risk Hispanic students and those who are performing below grade level. The 21st CCLC program provides academic remediation and family support services.
Beaufort County Schools (Cohort 1)	Washington	Wendy Buck	2002	$386,295	By creating villages, the grantee hopes to improve both academic and social outcomes for students. Increasing the amount of unassigned reading done by students is also a goal.
Beaufort County Schools (Cohort 4)	Washington	Wendy Buck	2005	$299,810	This proposal seeks funds to expand programming to include students in grades nine through twelve attending Washington High School whose academic performance qualifies them to receive services.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in North Carolina

Bertie County Schools (RECIPE-Cohort 3)	Windsor	Vicki H. Watford	2004	$400,000	RECIPE will blend the resources, expertise and services of the school system, community colleges, faith-based community, civic organizations, and various youth and family services agencies to strengthen the capacity of Bertie County's youth to become active.
Bladen County Schools (BEACON-Cohort 3)	Lumberton	Mack Porter	2004	$399,998	This project is a consortium of the school district and community agencies that seeks to serve 300 at-risk children in grades 5 to 8 and their families.
Bladen County Schools (Cohort 1)	Elizabethtown	Ann Elks	2002	$498,939	This grant seeks to improve academic achievement of elementary grades youngsters, increase cultural exposure and awareness, and reduce violence/increase abstinence behaviors with respect to drugs and alcohol.
Bladen County Schools (Connect to Learning-Cohort 4)	Riegelwood	Margaret Lawrence	2005	$278,021	"Connect to Learning" will provide a well-supervised after-school program that focuses on academic enrichment and personal success during "critical" times. The program provides students with a safe haven and opens "windows of opportunity" for them.
Brunswick County (CIS- Cohort 3)	Shallotte	Kathy Smith	2004	$400,000	This project seeks to improve EOG test scores and academic performance in reading and math of the participating students and to improve students' social skills.
Burke County (New Dimensions Charter-Cohort 1)	Morganton	Robin Howse	2002	$89,273	The purpose of the New Dimensions 21st Century Learning Center is to provide academic enhancement activities for students in K-5 grades to support their overall learning and academic performance.
Burke County Schools (Cohort 1)	Connelly Spring	Nancy Jordan	2002	$496,442	Elementary school based program covering 3 schools plus special projects. Provide academic enrichment services for targeted students, plus ESL and GED programs and other community academic programs. We have a strong technology focus to all of our programs.
Caswell County Schools (Cohort 2)	Yanceyville	Ethel Gwynn	2003	$139,907	Level I and II students are provided academic and enrichment opportunities four days a week after school. Every other week, these students will attend five days a week after school.
Catawba County Schools (Cohort 2)	Newton	Barbara Piekarski	2003	$136,647	SweetHEARTS has operated with fewer students than projected because it is limited to only Level 1 and 2 students.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in North Carolina

Chapel Hill-Carrboro City Schools (Orange County) - Cohort 4	Chapel Hill	Adam Eigenrauch	2005	$367,506	The project will provide services to high school students with identified academic needs. Services will be provided within two high school afterschool programs and two community-based evening tutorial programs.
Chapel Hill - Carrboro City Schools (Cohort 1)	Chapel Hill	Adam Eigenrauch	2002	$388,372	The 21st CCLC grant creates three afterschool programs (two school-based, one community-based) that serve identified elementary students. Students are invited to the program based on documented academic needs in reading and math.
Charlotte Mecklenburg (Academic Cultural Enrichment - Cohort 4)	Charlotte	Latoya Hatchett	2005	$290,282
Charlotte Mecklenburg Schools (ACE- Cohort 3)	Charlotte	Latoya Hatchett	2004	$275,000
Cleveland County Schools (Cohort 1)	Shelby	Linda Mc Knight	2002	$444,059	Program to provide and improve academic proficiency of students. Improve social skills, career awareness, and increase pro-social attitudes and behavior.
Cleveland County Schools (Cohort 2)	Shelby	Linda Mc Knight	2003	$241,056	Program to provide and improve academic proficiency of students. Improve social skills, career awareness, and increase pro-social attitudes and behavior.
Cumberland County (Cohort 3)	Fayetteville	Angela Burton	2004	$266,599	Cumberland County Schools will partner with community agencies to provide safe, structured activities to children during non-school hours.
Cumberland County Schools (Cohort 2)	Fayetteville	Angela Burton	2003	$138,036	The Proposed project funding will support a 21st CCLC center at Douglas Byrd High School. Serving 150 ninth graders and 60 family members.
Cumberland County Schools (Cohort 4)	Fayetteville	Mary Black	2005	$211,390	21ST CCLC Program is a quality after-school program that provides safe, structured academic enrichment programs to help children that scored level I and II to improve and pass the EOG standards.
Davidson County (Foundations First and Beyond- Cohort 4)	Thomasville	Karen Biscoe	2005	$298,500	Expansion grant from Cohort II Includes three Faith-Based Orgnaizations
Duplin County Schools (Cohort 2)	Kenansville	Pam Edwards	2003	$498,567	Our innovative program will focus on 300 academically failing youth in grades 6-8 from three schools with high percentages of students eligible for free and reduced - cost lunches.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in North Carolina

Durham County (After school Collaborative Learning Center - Cohort 4)	Durham	Monnie Griggs	2005	$300,000	This project will provide tutorial services to middle and high school students. In addition, the project will work with community partners to provide enrichment opportunities for these students after school.
Durham County (Links to Learning - Cohort 4)	Durham	Janeen J. Gammag	2005	$212,090	Links to Learning proposes to serve 100 Middle School children who live in one of the most disadvantaged areas in Durham. The students qualify for free/reduced lunch and exhibit lower achievement levels than the district average.
Durham County (Maureen Joy-Cohort 3)	Durham	Karin Douglas	2004	$225,000	CASA (Charter Association for Student Achievement) is a partnership of one charter schools and one community organization. CASA serves 150 students with a tutoring and enrichment program.
Durham County (N.C. Central University-Cohort 2)	Durham	Willie J. Tabor	2003	$292,595	The 21st Century Community Learning Center, Cohort serves boys and girls attending Title I Schools in grades 3 - 8. The grant was modified at the end of the first year. The original grant served K - 8.
Durham County (N.C. Central University-Cohort 3)	Durham	Dr. Beverly Jones/W	2004	$292,595	This grant is a Faith-Based Initiative. Seves boys and girls in Title I schools who are performing below their EOG levels.
Durham County (Victorious Community Development Corp. - Cohort 4)	Durham	Will Nicols	2005	$280,000	The VCDC/21CCCLC Youth and Education Program is an Afterschool component which focuses on Level 1 and 2 students.
Durham Public Schools (Cohort 1)	Durham	Linda Chappel	2002	$500,000	This project has a triangle affect to it. Hillside, YE Smith and the AKA Center work in collaboration to build parental support, and shared resources while providing a quality after school program at all three sites.
Durham Public Schools (Cohort 3)	DURAHM	MONNIE GRIGGS	2004	$300,000	Program will provide enrichment and tutorial services for students in an after school and summer camp setting.
Edenton/Chowan Schools (G.E.M.S.- Cohort 4)	Edenton	John Goodwin	2005	$143,354	Our program will provide after-school and summer programs for youth grades 3-12. The program will operate six days a week, twelve months per year.
Forsyth (YMCA-Cohort 3)	Winston-Salem	Maria M Aristizabal	2004	$400,000	The program will serve two elementary schools between the hours of 2:30pm and 5:30pm Monday through Friday. Two middle school sites will have programs from 2pm to 5:30pm Monday through Friday.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in North Carolina

Forsyth County (Carter G. Woodson, Right Start-Cohort 3)	Winston Salem	L. Aynn Daniels	2004	$400,000	Project involves partnership of 4 charter schools to address academic & social development of K-12 students ay Levels 1 & 2 proficiency by providing interventions in specifically math, literacy, & science .
Franklin County Schools (Cohort 1)	Louisburg	Daniele Bradshaw	2002	$413,842	The Franklin County 21st CCLC program provides academic and social intervention to identified students. There are four sites: Bunn Middle School, Franklinton Elementary, Louisburg Elementary, Terrell Lane Middle School.
Gaston County Schools (CIS-Cohort 3)	Gatonia	Beverly Kellar	2004	$398,200	This program seeks to provide enrichment and remediation services to children and families living in the most economically depressed area of the county.
GreeneCounty (HIGH FIVE-Cohort 3)	Snow Hill	Patricia MacNeill	2004	$400,000	We aim to narrow the achievement gap for students in grades pre-k through 12 through remediation and tutoring. We will provide personal attention and technology-rich, performance- and project-based learning.
Guilford County North Carolina A&T, HYPE- Cohort 3)	Greensboro	Daniel Webb	2004	$324,100	Focus is on helping at-risk youth to improve academically and develop into young people who can contribute to their community.
Guilford County Schools (Cohort 1)	Greensboro	Lana McCallum	2002	$494,965	Through a strong collaboration among community-based nonprofit, educational and faith-based organizations, facilitated under the leadership of Guilford County Schools, to focus community assets on academic achievement and positive youth development.
Harnett County (Think Smart Outreach Center- Cohort 4)	Dunn	Pamela Y. Williams	2005	$133,444	The focus of this program is to provide expanded academic enrichment opportunities for children attending low performing schools. Tutorial services and academic enrichment activities are designed to help students meet local and state academic standards.
Harnett County Schools (Cohort 2)	Lillington	Viola Elliott	2003	$169,149	The goals of the Western Harnett Education Enrichment are to provide after school and summer activities that focus on academic and enrichment activities for third through fifthe grade at-risk students. The program will be offered at three elementary schools.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in North Carolina

Haywood County Schools (Cohort 1)	Canton	Susan Caldwell	2002	$143,600	Our program provides afterschool and intercession tutoring in reading, math and writing. We also provide enrichment activities as well as developmental activities that address the whole child throughout the year. We also have adult education classes.
Iredell-Statesville ( Housing Authority, SHAKE-Cohort 3)	Statesville	Mamie Houston	2004	$400,000	This community-based approach to serving high risk youth is a highly collaborative model that brings place-based experiential authentic learning opportunities to South Statesville's 3rd-8th graders. Families are also served.
Jackson County Schools (Cohort 2)	Sylva	Peggy Wike	2003	$286,500	Through partnerships with community agencies we will provide a structured, high quality after-school and summer programs to meet the needs of our students and families.
Johnston County (SAIL- Cohort 4)	Smithfield	Angela Betterton	2005	$268,128	SAIL, Students Achieving through Independent Learning, is a 21st Century Community Learning Center for Johnston County Schools at Benson Middle School and North Johnston Middle School. SAIL serves Level I and II students and their adult family members.
Johnston County Schools (SAIL- Cohort 3)	Smithfield	Melissa Oliver	2004	$299,331	SAIL, Students Achieving through Independent Learning, is a new 21st Century Community Learning Center after school program at two Johnston County Schools: Corinth Holders School (grades 3-8) and Smithfield Middle School (grades 6-8).
Jones Public Schools (Project Proact- Cohort 4)	Trenton	Carolyn Lane	2005	$244,945	Jones County School's 21st Century Community Learning Center grant, PROACT-People Reaching Out and Caring Together plans to provide and extend learning opportunities for at risk students.
Lee County Schools (Cohort 1)	Sanford	Ryan Kelly	2002	$306,469	A comprehensive school, family, and community partnership that will enhance students socially, academically, and morally while building self-esteem and confidence in a positive controlled environment.
Lenoir (VILLAGE ACADEMY- Cohort 3)	Kinston	Gloria Carr-Battle	2004	$298,685	The program will provide an array of comprehensive services for nearly 500 children from low-income families. Services will be offered in the form of a)before and after school activities, b) a Saturday Academy, and c) a Summer Enrichment Camp.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in North Carolina

Lenoir / Kinston (REAP- Cohort 3)	Kinston	Frank Abbott	2004	$494,786	This project is designed to decrease risk factors while implementing the Standard Course of Study (EOG) and No Child Left Behind programs.
Martin County Schools (Cohort 2)	Williamson	Debra Hines Wilson	2003	$468,758	Martin Magic afterschool program was designed for low academic performing students. There are four schools that are involved with working to try and increase students from level 1 & 2 to level 3 & 4.
Martin County Schools (Martin Magic- Cohort 4)	Williamston, NC	Debra Hines-Wilson	2005	$100,000	Martin Magic afterschool program was designed for low academic performing students. Students that scored level 1 or 2 in their reading and math.
Mecklenburg County (BOLD Kids Afterschool Program-Cohort 4)	Charlotte	Carolyn Spellman	2005	$280,000	It is an after school enrichment program aimed at exhilarating the learning process for kids. We are focused on finding innovative ways to teach Level I & II children using the N.C. Standard Course of Study with integrated, fun filled activity.
Moore County Schools (Project Alive- Cohort 3)	Aberdeen	Diane Grant	2004	$399,645	Project Aberdeen Alive is based on three compelling high priority needs that place our students at risk of educational failure which must be addressed in ways that will show long-term benefits to our school communities.
Nash County (Excellence in Middle Grade Through the Integration of Math Content and Reading Through &#34;The Arts&#34;- Cohort 4)	Nashville	Michael D. Perry	2005	$398,504	Middle grade appropriate literature will be used to develop dramatic four-act plays. Students will gain experiences in using technology, auditioning, designing props, and integrating musical selections.
New Hanover County (OLAS - Cohort 3)	Wilmington	Olga R. Wheatley/Y	2004	$100,000	This project aims to create a sustainable framework for community support services and cultural integration for all language minorities that can be replicated at other school after-school sites in North Carolina.
New Hanover County Schools (ASPIRE Academy- Cohort 4)	Wilmington	Olga R. Wheatley	2005	$215,721	The ASPIRE Academy will serve Limited English Proficient (LEP) students and their families during the after-school hours. ASPIRE stands for After School Programs Improving Relationships and English.
New Hanover County Schools (Cohort 1)	Wilmington	Olga R. Wheatley	2002	$497,669	The NHCS 21st CCLC Partnership will show how existing after-school programs can collaborate with a public school system to offer a unified reading and math program that will help bridge the school and after-school learning cultures.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in North Carolina

New Hanover/ Pender County (Brigade Boys & Girls Club- Cohort 3)	Wilmington	Angela Lee	2004	$300,000	Partnership of Brigade Boys & Girls Club and Pender County Schools. Program has operated for 67 days for first year due to transportation issues. Transportation will continue to be a barrier that we will encounter with regard to start date of program.
Pasquotank County (Elizabeth City State University-Cohort 3)	Elizabeth City	Claudie Mackey	2004	$400,000
Perquimans County Schools (2020 Vision- Cohort 3)	Hertford	Jeanie C. Umphlett	2004	$300,000	We offer services to meet educational, health, social, cultural and recreational needs of students, parents and the community. In addition, academic remediation/enrichment services are provided to help students meet state and local performance standards.
Pitt County (Golden Eagles After School Program- Cohort 4)	Greenville	Diane Lambert	2005	$134,536	The 21st CCLC Golden Eagles After-School Program serves 3rd, 4th, and 5th graders (Levels I and II) at Belvoir Elementary. Many students, and their parents, who are not at Level I or Level II have requested to join the program.
Pitt County (Tigers Den After School Academy-Cohort 3)	Greenville	Tarcie Bess	2004	$149,956	There were 102 students who were eligible and invited to participate in the 21st CCLC Tigers Den program. One barrier is recruiting volunteers. Recruitment efforts have been ongoing but without much success.
Polk County Schools (Cohort 4)	Columbus	Emily Bartlett, Direc	2005	$280,000	We are enhancing existing and creating new afterschool programs in K-8. In addition we will provide enrichment on all teacher workdays and scheduled breaks. We are coordinating 8 weeks of summer programming using community partners.
Roanoke Rapids Schools (Cohort 1)	Roanoke Rapids	Gilbert Portela	2002	$206,250	Serve 200 students at 3 sites, grades K-8, provide homework tutoring, Math and Reading component, enrichment activities to enhance whole child in drama, photography, recreation, sewing, cooking, basketball and other activities.
Robeson County Schools (BRIDGES- Cohort 3)	Lumberton	Marilyn Lee	2004	$399,465	This program in 3 schools will serve an isolated rural population.
Robeson Public School (BRIDGES Cohort 4)	Lumberton n.c.	Dr. Gene Freeman	2005	$208,446	We are an after school program providing academic strategies to achieve academic success and school readiness for students not meeting grade level.
Rutherford County Schools (BEST PRACTICES- Cohort 3)	Forest City	Teresa Monson	2004	$400,000	Program will meet needs of students and families at five centers.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in North Carolina

Sampson County (SMARRT - Cohort 4)	Clinton	Winifred H. Murphy	2005	$400,000	Our project will serve 100 students each at 3 different schools. SMARRT (Science, math, arts, reading, recreation and technology) will be the focus.
Scotland County Schools (Cohort 2)	Laurinburg	Dr. Shirley Prince	2003	$498,588	Scotland County Schools' afterschool program, SCHOLARS, funded by this grant is located in 4 sites: 3 elementary schools and 1 middle schools.
Scotland County Schools (Cohort 4)	Laurinburg	Dr. Anne Crabbe	2005	$320,000	This 21st CCLC grant will operated afterschool programs in three schools: North Laurinburg Elementary School, Spring Hill Middle School, and Sycamore Lane Middle School.
Statesville Housing Authority	Statesville	Mamie Houston	2005	$282,843	Our K-2 eSHAKE (Early Success Helps All Kids Excel) program provides family literacy and technolgy-enriched resiliency building. eSHAKE is an expansion of our 3rd-8th graders SHAKE program,.
Swain County Schools (Cohort 1)	Bryson City	Rachel Lackey	2002	$500,000	Project Extreme provides tutoring, remediation, extended Media Center hours, clubs, special classes, arts enrichment, physical fitness activities, parent programs at five high schools in Swain, Graham, and Cherokee counties.
Swain County Schools (Project Extreme II- Cohort 4)	Bryson City	Rachel Lackey	2005	$240,000	Project Extreme II will provide a comprehensive after school program for students scoring at Level I or II on statewide assessments. The program will include snacks, homework help, tutoring, enrichment activities, nutrition and physical fitness.
Thomasville City Schools (Cohort 2)	Thomasville	KAREN BISCOE	2003	$275,000	Afterschool program elementary/middle school Enrichment activities
Transylvania County (CISTC- Cohort 3)	Brevard	Jana Jacobs	2004	$116,276	This project hopes to serve adults and children in rural NC. It will emphasize dealing with rural poverty, drug use, violence and teen pregnancy, LEP and education in the County
Union County (TEAM- Cohort 3)	Monroe	Bill Stegall	2004	$399,998	A broad-based coalition of education and community leaders will work to improve the academic and behavioral outcomes of students.
Union County Schools (FROGS- Cohort 4)	Monroe	Linda Walsh	2005	$208,588	The FROGS program is an afterschool program designed to address the needs of the whole child. Strong emphasis is placed on core academics, cultural arts, health and recreation, technology, character education, and drug and alcohol prevention.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in North Carolina

Wake County (WC Human Services-Cohort 3)	Raleigh	Jamilyn Cole	2004	$398,000	This 21st CCLC supports the development of 3 community based centers, serving 300 Level I and II youth attending Garner, NC schools and their families. Sites will be operated by community, faith based partners that will build programming.
Wake County (Super Opportunity for After School SOAR - Cohort 4)	Apex	Bryce Ashmore	2005	$290,437	S.O.A.R. will improve academic performance of students: scoring at Level I or Level II on the State of North Carolina's end-of-grade reading and math exam; and science proficiency for their grade level.
Wake County Schools (Cohort 1)	Cary	Cynthia Chamblee	2002	$178,512	The Great Expectations Program will provide quality after-school and summer programs at Knightdale Elementary School.
Warren County Schools (Cohort 2)	Rocky Mount	James Bell	2003	$385,017	The program will focus on expanded learning activities for the students afterschool and during the summer, oppurtunities for parents at the school site and at the Parent Resource Centers, enriched and alinged curricula and technology.
Washington County Schools (Cohort 3)	Plymouth	May Hope Wilkins	2004	$485,000	The Washington County 21st Century Community Learning Centers feature five componentsL Hip-Hop, Rap & Success, GEAR UP, After-School Enrichment, Adult Education and Family Involvement.
Wayne County (CASTLES-Cohort 4)	Goldsboro	Danielle Baptiste	2005	$280,000	CASTLES 21st Century Community Learning Center is a dynamic, multi-faceted after school program which serves students ages 5-12 who are performing below grade level.
Wayne County Schools (Building Better Teens- Cohort 3)	Goldsboro	Ruby A. Bell	2004	$400,000	Building Better Teens is an after-school program for level I and II students at Goldsboro Middle, Brodgen Middle and Dillard Middle School. The purpose is to improve academic achievement, life skills development, promote personal and social growth.
Weldon City Schools (SSSS Project- Cohort 3)	Weldon	Oliver A. Holley	2004	$160,100	This grant will improve both academic and social behavior.
Wilson County (Project EXCEL for Teaching Academics for Life-Cohort 4)	Wilson	Ada R. Harris	2005	$262,500	Project Excel Program will serve students who are in need of academically structured progams to include tutoring and mentoring of students for higher achievements in EOC and EOG Tests Scores.