

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Ohio

| Grantee | City | Contact | Award Year | Year One Award | Program Description |
|--------------------------------|---------------|------------------|-------------------|-----------------------|--|
| Academy of Dayton | Dayton, OH | Makeda McCloud | 2003 | $192,000 | This program is designed to maintain a high quality after school program that benefits the educational, health, social service, cultural, and recreational needs of the urban Dayton community. |
| Adena Local Schools | Frankfort, OH | Marah Sharpe | 2004 | $275,000 | Connecting Minds for the Future is a project of the Adena Local School District to develop a 21st Century Community Learning Center for the betterment of students, parents and community members in the rural community served by the school district. |
| After School Discovery | Ashtabula, OH | Patricia Seymour | 2004 | $297,206 | Through After School Discovery, extended learning opportunities target 270 4th, 5th, and 6th grade students at three low achieving schools in Ashtabula Area City Schools. Six community partners, in addition to the three schools. |
| Akron City Schools | Akron, OH | Desiree Bolden | 2003 | $163,000 | The Akron Public Schools 21st Century after school program serves children, youth and parents through high quality after school and summer enrichment programs. Low achieving students in high poverty neighborhoods are the primary target. |
| Akron Public Schools | Akron | Desiree Bolden | 2004 | $471,620 | The Akron Public Schools 21st Century after school program serves children, youth and parents through high quality after school and summer enrichment programs. Low achieving students in high poverty neighborhoods are the primary target. |
| Alexander Local Schools | Albany, OH | Karen Boch | 2004 | $299,604 | Kids on Campus trained staff will provide three ten-week sessions of Before/After School programming focusing on tutoring, literacy, homework help, foreign language, computer skills, science, math, arts, multicultural experiences and integrated health program. |
| Alliance City Schools Cohort 1 | Alliance, OH | Matthew Horning | 2003 | $257,810 | The mission of the NAVIGATORS 21st CCLC program is to help students chart a course towards a positive, healthy future. We do this by providing students with opportunities for academic intervention and academic enrichment, health and wellness. |

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Ohio

| | | | | | |
|--|---------------------|-------------------|------|-----------|--|
| Athens City School District Cohort 1 | The Plains | Sharon Parsons | 2003 | $499,240 | Kids on Campus will provide three ten-week sessions of Before/After School tutoring with trained staff, focusing on hands-on experiences including foreign language, computer skills, robotics, math labs, science labs, visual and performing arts, health program. |
| Auglaize Educational Service Center | Wapakoneta, OH | Pamela Bell | 2004 | $299,980 | Project ExTRAS is meeting the needs of students and families in Auglaize County who receive free lunches, are on IEP's or 504 plans, and/or are below the state levels of progress in math and reading. The after-school program serves 6 school districts. |
| Austintown Local Schools | Austintown, OH | Paige Wilcox | 2004 | $300,000 | The primary focus of the TLC (The Learning Center) after school program is to provide after school academic tutoring, homework assistance, drug, alcohol, and violence prevention programming, and opportunities for cultural diversity training and fine arts. |
| Bellaire Local School District | St. Clairsville, OH | Susan Stobbs | 2004 | $297,739 | This program offers after school programming in elementary schools located in three districts in rural Appalachian Belmont County, Ohio. The centers are in operation from after school until 6 p m five days a week. |
| Bucyrus City Schools | Bucyrus, OH | Stephanie Tschane | 2004 | $299,579 | |
| Canton City School District | Canton | Jim Irvin | 2003 | $402,498 | Each middle school will become an oasis of productivity and connection in a desert of urban ills - for youth, for families and for the community at large. Each school is open during the dangerous after-school hours when no one is home to supervise. |
| Cincinnati City Schools - Year 3 Plea Ridge/Winton Pl | Cincinnati, OH | Jared Perkins | 2004 | $300,000 | (1)Tutoring and Mentoring, (2)Technology & Career Exploration, (3)Service Learning, (4)Fine Arts & Diversity, (5)Leadership Development, (6)Recreational Activities, (7)Non-School Day Programs & Family Sessions. |
| Cincinnati City Schools Avondale | Cincinnati | Jared Perkins | 2004 | $300,000 | (1)Tutoring and Mentoring, (2)Technology & Career Exploration, (3)Service Learning, (4)Fine Arts & Diversity, (5)Leadership Development, (6)Recreational Activities, (7)Non-School Day Programs & Family Sessions |

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Ohio

| | | | | | |
|---|----------------|---------------------|------|-----------|---|
| Cincinnati City Schools CF HY | Cincinnati, OH | Jared Perkins | 2004 | $300,000 | (1)Tutoring and Mentoring, (2)Technology & Career Exploration, (3)Service Learning, (4)Fine Arts & Diversity, (5)Leadership Development, (6)Recreational Activities, (7)Non-School Day Programs & Family Sessions |
| Cincinnati City Schools EE OY | Cincinnati, OH | Jared Perkins | 2004 | $300,000 | (1)Tutoring and Mentoring, (2)Technology & Career Exploration, (3)Service Learning, (4)Fine Arts & Diversity, (5)Leadership Development, (6)Recreational Activities, (7)Non-School Day Programs & Family Sessions |
| Cleveland Municipal School District Cohort 1 | Cleveland | Monique Witherspoon | 2003 | $450,000 | We are a community oriented program providing much needed academic services to the students and families of selected academically at risk schools. |
| Cleveland Municipal School District Cohort 2 | Cleveland | Monique Witherspoon | 2003 | $460,000 | Each of these schools is currently in school improvement status: per the Ohio Department of Education. The majority of students in these buildings face significant obstacles to their educational success. |
| Clyde-Green Springs Ex. Village School District | Clyde | Dennis Gable | 2003 | $140,274 | New Directions After School and Summer Program provided academic instruction in reading and mathematics. Additionally, the program offered a mix of computer literacy programs, cultural and recreational presentations and activities. |
| Columbus City Schools | Columbus, OH | Katie Huenke | 2004 | $404,313 | Columbus Public Schools collaborated with God man Guild Association, Boys and Girls Clubs of Columbus and the YWCA of Central Ohio to create three 21st Century Community Learning Centers at Como and Fifth Avenue elementary schools and Indianola Middle School. |
| Columbus City Schools | Columbus, OH | Connie Cline | 2004 | $300,000 | The Columbus Public Schools collaborated with the Boys and Girls Clubs of Columbus to create three 21st Century Community Centers at Heyl, and Reeb elementary schools and Southmoor Middle School which serve over 800 students and their families. |
| Columbus Public Schools Cohort 1 | Columbus | Katie Huenke | 2003 | $404,381 | Columbus Public Schools and Communities In Schools collaborated to create 3 21st Century Community Learning Centers at Cassady, East Linden and McGuffey elementary schools which serve close to 1000 students and families. |

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Ohio

| | | | | | |
|---|----------------|--------------------|------|-----------|---|
| Columbus Public Schools Cohort 2 | Columbus | Katie Huenke | 2003 | $404,313 | Columbus Public Schools and Communities in Schools collaborated to create 3 21st Century Community Learning Centers at Buckeye Middle School, Deshler and Koebel elementary schools which serve close to 1000 students and their families. |
| Columbus State Community College | Columbus, OH | Diane Farmer | 2004 | $217,178 | Capital Park 21st Century Program serves 45-50 Somali student of whom approximately 90% are ESL students. The program is housed at the Capital Park Child Development Center on the campus of the Capital Park Apartment Complex. The "Parent University" |
| Columbus State Community College | Columbus, OH | Kelly Budros | 2004 | $217,178 | Providence Glenn 21st Century Program serves 45-50 Somali Students of whom approximately 90% are ESL students. The program is housed at the Providence Glenn apartment complex. |
| Crestline Ex Village Cohort 4 | Crestline | David McQuown | 2005 | $299,579 | The Crestline after-school program will provide tutoring & homework assistance, and personal/youth development activities. Adults will be served through literacy and parenting classes. |
| Cuyahoga Community College | Cleveland | Dr. Patricia Mintz | 2003 | $148,960 | The TILI Learning Center at Rainbow Terrace provides tutorial and educational options for K-12 students. These educational options include (but are not limited to): technology and information literacy programming, classroom support programming, GED program. |
| Dayton City School District | Dayton | Janice West | 2003 | $368,732 | After school programming designed to aid in reading and math assessments for target schools in our area for grades 3-6. |
| Delaware-Union Educational Service Center | Delaware | Katherine McWatter | 2003 | $185,412 | The 21st CLCC program provides strategic, summer and after school extended learning opportunities at three school sites in two school districts in Delaware County. |
| Eagle Heights Academy | Youngstown, OH | Linda Mansfield | 2004 | $298,836 | The name of our program defines our objective: HIGH G.E.A.R.S. (Gaining Excellence in the Arts, Reading and Sciences). |
| East Cleveland City Schools Cohort 1 | East Cleveland | Thomas E. Coleman | 2003 | $396,655 | The 21st Century Community Learning Center Program provides after school learning centers in the various schools within the District. These Centers provide programs to students and Community members. |

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Ohio

| | | | | | |
|--|-----------------|----------------------|------|-----------|--|
| East Cleveland City Schools | East Cleveland | Thomas E. Coleman | 2004 | $299,530 | The 21st Century after-school program provides tutorial services to students between the grades of 1st thru 6th. Additional activities include Math, Science, Reading, Recreational activities and Visual Arts. |
| East End Community Heritage School | Cincinnati , OH | Anthony Dameron | 2003 | $61,500 | Our program is an after school program designed to keep student interested in school. We offer students the opportunity to take part in many activities which focus on increasing students abilities in reading and mathematics. |
| East End Neighborhood House | Cleveland, OH | Tatiana Wells | 2004 | $269,000 | Our center provides enrichment opportunities for students who attend schools in the Buckeye-Woodland Hills community in particularly Buckeye-Woodland, Bolton, Mt.Auburn/The International Preparatory School. |
| Edison Local School District | Bergholz, OH | Fatima Smuck | 2003 | $401,682 | Our 21st Century After School Program is called D.R.E.A.M.S. for Dance, Reading, Enrichment, Art, Math, Science. We offer classes in all these areas. Computer classes are offered for remediation and enrichment. |
| Euclid City School District Cohort 2 | Euclid | Hans Pesch | 2003 | $216,356 | The program provide after-school remedial support in reading and math to students who are significantly below grade level. |
| Federal Hocking Local School District | Stewart | Ron Stephens | 2003 | $400,240 | Kids on Campus will provide three ten-week sessions of Before/After School tutoring with trained staff, focusing on hands-on experiences including foreign language, computer skills, math activities, science activities, visual and performing arts... |
| Fitton Center for Creative Arts Cohort 1 | Hamilton | Tracy Perkins Miller | 2003 | $326,828 | A collaboration of arts, education and cvommunity-based social services to help children at low-achieving schools to meet core academic standards in reading and math. |
| Fremont City Schools | Fremont, OH | Mrs. Mae Dell Leake | 2004 | $300,000 | Fremont City Schools and WSOS Community Action have partnered to improve the academic performance, attendance and healthy lifestyles of students who qualify for the free and reduced lunch program and are at risk in reading and mathematics. |

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Ohio

| | | | | | |
|---|----------------|---------------------|------|-----------|---|
| Gallia-Vinton Educational Service Center Cohort 3 | Rio Grande, OH | Dr. Denise Shockley | 2004 | $300,000 | Gallia L.E.A.D.S. ensures that rural youth, living below poverty and underachieving in school, obtain the skills necessary to increase student achievement and lead enriching and healthy lifestyles. The project provides services for 360 children and 55 families. |
| Gallia-Vinton Educational Service Center Cohort 3 | Rio Grande, OH | Dr. Denise Shockley | 2004 | $300,000 | Gallia L.E.A.D.S. ensures that rural youth, living below poverty and underachieving in school, obtain the skills necessary to increase student achievement and lead enriching and healthy lifestyles. The project provides services for 360 children and 55 families. |
| Gallia-Vinton Educational Service Center Cohort 4 | | | 2005 | - | |
| Gallipolis City Schools | Gallipolis, OH | James Craft | 2004 | $300,000 | "Project Prime Time" is a collaborative effort, led by the Gallipolis City School District, to improve student achievement through an extended school day program for students who are at risk in reading, math and all core subjects at grades 1-8. |
| Girard City Schools | Girard, OH | Anthony Cario | 2004 | $227,956 | Provide an after-school enrichment program that will increase overall academic performance, especially in reading and math. To provide family educational materials that will focus on children, adults, and families, aimed at increasing literacy. |
| Harmony Community School | Cincinnati, OH | Graylyn Swilley | 2004 | $299,748 | Harmony Community School seeks to implement Project SMART (Science, Math, Art, Aviation, Reading/Recreation, and Technology), an afterschool and before-school project. This project is designed to empower students, their families and the community. |
| Highland Local Schools Cohort 2 | Sparta | Anagene Loebick | 2003 | $446,243 | An afterschool program offered at three elementary buildings serving ~ 90 high risk students. Attendance has been strong and this year we have a waiting list of students whose parents want them in the program. |
| Hillsboro City Schools | Hillsboro, OH | David L. Minnix | 2004 | $300,000 | Our project is a collaborative response by school and community to prevent and reverse academic failure and risky behaviors among middle and high school students. |
| Lancaster City Schools Cohort 3 | Lancaster, OH | Becky Edwards | 2004 | $299,995 | The Eastside Center for Success is an afterschool project serving the students who attend East Elementary School in Lancaster, Ohio. |

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Ohio

| | | | | | |
|--|---------------|------------------|------|-----------|--|
| Lancaster City Schools Cohort 3 | Lancaster | Dr. Paul Young | 2004 | $299,995 | Our project centers around an after school tutoring program for reading and math and the development of literacy, cultural awareness, and social skills for the students below grade level (K-6) at West Elementary School and their families. |
| Lima City School District Cohort 1 | Lima, OH | Fran Mort | 2003 | $309,775 | Lima City Schools offers after school and summer programs @ the district's three lowest academic performing elementary schools, which also have the highest poverty rates in the district. |
| Lima City School District Cohort 3 | Lima | Fran Mort | 2004 | $125,000 | Lima City School's offers after school and summer programs @ the district's lowest academic performing middle school, which is also has the highest poverty rate of the district's three middle schools. |
| Logan Hocking Local Schools | Logan, OH | Lisa Frasure | 2004 | $291,867 | The purpose of SPROUTS Community Learning Center is to provide our students with experiences to enhance all areas of development with an emphasis on intervention in reading and math. |
| Lucas County Ed. Service Ctr | Toledo | Karen Smurr | 2003 | $200,340 | This grant is a partnership between the Alternate Learning and Career Center (ALCC) operated by Lucas County Educational Service Center (LCESC) and Wernert Elementary in the Washington Local School District (WLS). |
| Madison Local School District | Madison | Sally Jo Rogus | 2003 | $50,000 | An afterschool tutoring program with a focus on individual students' needs in regards to performance indicators as identified by the Ohio Academic Content Standards. |
| Mahoning Co. ESC | Youngstown | Rachilla Basista | 2003 | $230,645 | The Collaborative 21 Project targets 60 students and 100 family members from 14 public school districts in Mahoning County, who are referred to Alternative School Programs because of problematic behavior. |
| Mansfield City Neighborhood Youth Corps/Mansfield City Schools | Mansfield, OH | Brenda Phillips | 2003 | $187,749 | After-school program to assist students in achieving academic success, and to secure support services for children and families served by this community learning center. |
| Mansfield City School | Mansfield | Mitzi Kimani | 2004 | $232,213 | Our Connect 4 program aims to increase academic performance in Reading and Math. Our program aims to benefit the educational, related health and social services, cultural and recreational needs of our students. |

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Ohio

| | | | | | |
|--|----------------|---------------------|------|-----------|--|
| Massillon City Schools | Massillon, OH | Judy Kenny | 2003 | $198,100 | Project A.B.C. provides quality extended day programming for children and families of the Massillon City Schools. Children participate in hands-on enrichment activities, homework help, recreational activities and are provided with nutritious meals. |
| Massillon City Schools | Massillon | Kathy Kalleker Nola | 2004 | $257,009 | This 21st CLC project serves middle school youth from both of the Massillon Middle Schools in grades 6-8. The program utilizes in house instructors as well as community partners to offer a menu of choices for the students. |
| Maysville Local School District | Zanesville | Tom Musgrave | 2003 | $86,452 | Funds are being used to operate the Academic Enrichment Program of MLSD. Through the program, students in grades K through 5 are provided with both intervention and enrichment in after-school and summer settings. |
| Mental Health & Recovery Board of Wayne/Holmes | Wooster | Jill Hipkins | 2003 | $375,000 | This 3-district project provides before and after school programs in 2 elementary schools, after school programs in 2 middle schools, after school programs in 1 alternative school and credit recovery and after school activities in two high schools. |
| Mentor Exempted Village School District | Mentor, OH | Judyth Zaczowski | 2004 | $300,000 | During 2004-2005 Navigators operated from three school sites for 3 hours per day for students in grades 4 - 6 who are at-risk in reading and mathematics. While we are still being operated for the same purpose, one school was closed. |
| Mercer County Educational Service Center | Celina, OH | Cece Wheeler | 2003 | $187,500 | The MCESC provides after school programs in three districts which focus on academic intervention, enrichment, family services and extracurricular activities. Reading and math are targeted through the use of various curriculum. |
| Morgan Local Schools Cohort 1 | McConnelsville | Dean Wright | 2003 | $318,245 | The Morgan Local program covers grades 1-6 at three sites situated in a 421 sq. mile single county school district. The program seeks to address the academic needs of the students, specifically focusing on reading and math deficiencies. |
| Morgan Local Schools Cohort 2 | McConnelsville | Dean Wright | 2003 | $399,283 | The program operates at two sites, Morgan Junior High School and Morgan High School. The program serves students in grades 7 and 8 at Morgan Junior High and grades 9 thru 12 at Morgan High School. The school system is a county wide school system covering |

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Ohio

| | | | | | |
|---|---------------|-----------------|------|-----------|--|
| Murtis H. Taylor Multi Service Center | Cleveland | Ronald Register | 2003 | $375,000 | The 21st Century program addresses the needs of the Mt. Pleasant community by providing reading and mathematics proficiency based instruction during afterschool hours. We have encountered significant barriers in the areas of parental involvement, recruit |
| Neighborhood Centers Association Cohort 1 | Cleveland, OH | Maggie Keenan | 2003 | $500,000 | The 21st Century Program funded by this grant is being run out of three neighborhood centers in the City of Cleveland and provides out-of-school academic instruction, enrichment with a strong emphasis on reading, math and parental involvement. |
| Neighborhood Centers Association Cohort 3 | Cleveland | Maggie Keenan | 2004 | $375,000 | The 21st Century Program funded by this grant is being run out of three neighborhood centers in the City of Cleveland and provides out-of-school academic instruction, enrichment with a strong emphasis on reading, math and parental involvement. |
| New Connecting Point | Toledo, OH | Nancy Swindel | 2004 | $299,404 | The learning center is a community-based prevention program of Connecting Point in partnership with Toledo Public Schools. The Learning Center's mission is to provide opportunities for students and families to maximize their potential for success. |
| New Connecting Point | Toledo, OH | Nancy Swindel | 2004 | $299,906 | The learning center is a community-based prevention program of Connecting Point in partnership with Toledo Public Schools. The Learning Center's mission is to provide opportunities for students and families to maximize their potential for success. |
| New Miami Local School District | Hamilton | Dianne Muennich | 2003 | $102,665 | This project funds for students and community members an extended school day/year menu of expanded learning opportunities in a safe, drug free environment. |
| Northmor Local Schools | Galion, OH | Dennis Ervin | 2004 | $299,556 | With our 21st CCLC funds we have incorporated an afterschool program where students receive a healthy snack, homework tutoring help and community educators who teach a wide range of hands-on activities. |
| Northwest Ohio Educational Service Center | Wauseon, OH | Annette Foote | 2004 | $290,791 | We have 3 afterschool sites. Two began in the Fall and the third has just begun in January. All serve 40-50 students, grades 1-4. Differentiated instruction is required in all program sites. |

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Ohio

| | | | | | |
|---|-----------------|-----------------|------|-----------|---|
| Perry-Hocking Educational Service Center | New Lexington | Sarah Wright | 2004 | $300,000 | The afterschool program will provide tutoring in mathematics and reading. The program will also provide recreational activities, character building and snacks. |
| Preble County Educational Service Center Cohort 3 | Eaton, OH | Joanele Hoce | 2004 | $284,440 | Our project provides tutoring and other focused supplemental supports for children most at risk in reading and mathematics. |
| Putnam County Educational Service Center Cohort 2 | Ottawa | Pat Smith | 2003 | $391,992 | Project AAA provides before, after and summer programs to the students of Continental, Leipsic, Ottawa Elementary and Pandora-Gilboa. The program's focus is on Homework Assist, Reading/Math skill development and Academic Enrichment. |
| River View Local Schools | Warsaw, OH | Jill Fry | 2004 | $246,038 | To Community and Beyond takes place at two school sites and features help with homework, enrichment activities provided by community partners, recreation, snack, and transportation home for K-6 students. |
| Shawnee State University Cohort 4 | | | 2005 | - | |
| Shawnee State University | Portsmouth , OH | Jerry Blanchard | 2003 | $240,575 | Shawnee State University serves as the fiscal agent for three schools in the Ohio South Consortium which are currently participating in the 21st Century Community Learning Centers' before and after-school programs. |
| Sinclair Community College Cohort 3 | Dayton, OH | Sue Garretson | 2004 | $286,896 | To provide enrichment activities to low-income, at-risk students that raise their math and reading skills and provides art and cultural experiences. Also, to provide family literacy and parenting classes for 25 of the students who are parents. |
| South Cental Ohio ESC | Portsmouth, OH | Lori Jenkins | 2003 | $174,604 | Project S.A.F.E provides extended learning time for students to explore educational options. |
| Southern Local Schools | Corning, OH | Lisa Roback | 2004 | $300,000 | Southern Local School's 21st Century Community Learning Grant provides academic support as well as enrichment opportunities to 250 students at the school campus and two community sites. |
| Springfield City Schools | Springfield, OH | Natalie Comer | 2004 | $299,574 | The 21st Century Grant is a partnership between the Springfield City Schools and the Eagle and Dove Academy (faith-based community group). The Center provides extended-day programming for Springfield City School District elementary students. |

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Ohio

| | | | | | |
|---|------------------|----------------|------|-----------|---|
| St. Bernard - Elmwood Place City Schools Cohort 1 | St. Bernard | Pat Christie | 2003 | $300,000 | The 21st Century Community Learning Center serves two elementary and one combined middle/high school. |
| St. Stephen's Community House | Columbus | Laura Busque | 2003 | $210,933 | St. Stephen's 21st Century Adventures in Learning Program provides 3 learning centers(2 elementary sites & 1 intermediate/middle school site)to students from 6 targeted low performing schools(4 elementary,1 intermediate & 1 middle School) |
| Tecumseh Local Schools | New Carlisle, OH | Matt Curtis | 2004 | $156,086 | We are providing afterschool tutoring for 2 sites of grades 1-5 . Our goal is to increase reading and math scores and assist with English language acquisition for ESL students. |
| The Children's Home | Cincinnati, OH | Robin Brown | 2004 | $300,000 | Our program is located in 3 elementary schools in the Norwood City School district. |
| Toledo Academy of Learning | Toledo, OH | Karen Kinney | 2004 | $177,824 | We offer after school programs for students K-9th grades from 3:30 until 6:00 pm from Monday through Thursday and from 9:00am until 12:00 on Saturday mornings during the school year and during three two week sessions during the months of July and August. |
| Toledo City Schools Cohort 2 | Toledo | John Foley | 2003 | $140,180 | Spring School will hold after school and summer activities to involve students and families in academic, social, and cultural activities that will enhance their learning opportunities and improve the students lives. |
| Toledo City Schools Cohort 3 | Toledo, OH | John Foley | 2004 | $134,720 | Afterschool activities will be held at Newbury Elementary school conducted in collaboration with The Boys and Girls Club. Staff will work with students and families to provide academic and social activities to enhance learning. |
| Tri-County Educational Service Center | Wooster, OH | Melanie Parks | 2004 | $300,000 | This grant supports before and after school programs in 6 elementary and and after school program in 1 middle school in two school districts in Wayne and Holmes Counties. |
| Tuscarawas-Carroll-Harrison Ed Service Ctr Cohort 3 | New Philadelphia | LuAnne Jackson | 2004 | $299,361 | Project ABC is focusing on Academic Achievement, Body Fitness, and Cultural Enrichment. This program features an intervention math and reading curriculum, an enriched math, reading, and language arts curriculum, an after school fun club and a youth fitness program. |

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Ohio

| | | | | | |
|--|---------------|-----------------------|------|-----------|--|
| Unified Health Solutions | Dayton | Tanisha Jumper | 2003 | $403,828 | Project Bridges is an after school program being implemented across three districts, Mad River local school district, Northridge Public schools and Dayton Public schools. The project is currently serving between 35 to 65 children per day per site. Progr |
| Urbana City Schools | Urbana, OH | Londa Schwierking | 2004 | $151,800 | Our project is literacy. We are combining forces with the County Literacy program to improve literacy in the school and community from pre-school to adults working with the homeless shelter, hospital, university and school. |
| Vinton County Local School District | McArthur | Andrea Caudill | 2003 | $500,000 | It is the goal of Project Boost to increase overall student achievement and to offer a program to students and families that allows for the development of the child and family. |
| Warren Local School District ES Cohort 2 | Bartlett, OH | Jenny Wiese | 2003 | $228,520 | Warren Local School's 21st Century program was implemented in two of the district's schools, Bartlett Elementary and Cutler Elementary. |
| Warren Local School District HS Cohort 3 | Vincent, OH | Peg Littler - High Sc | 2004 | $228,520 | Due to the isolationism & lack of specialized services in our rural Appalachian area, Warren Local High School provides an Academics to Career Excellence Program (ACE) which operates a before, after and Saturday school and intervention summer program for |
| West Carrollton City Schools | W. Carrollton | Mike Pittman | 2004 | $140,000 | The Frank Nicholas Elementary 21st Century Learning Center provides a wide variety of before and afterschool learning experiences for students. A full day 9 week summer learning camp is one of many extended options free of charge for parents. |
| Western Buckeye ESC | Van Wert | Jason Cox | 2003 | $286,910 | Our project consists of reading and math instruction with time for mentoring and character building. |
| Wood County Educational Service Center | Bowling Green | Warren Fauver | 2003 | $254,279 | The Community Learning Centers of Wood County provide extended learning and enrichment programs for elementary children and their families at three locations under this grant. |
| Xenia Community School District Cohort 2 | Xenia | Beth Kloos | 2003 | $471,412 | Our program is providing an after school program for three sites targeting math and language arts skill. We also are providing enrichment programs such as piano, art, computers one day a week after school. |

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Ohio

| | | | | | |
|----------------------------------|----------------|---------------|------|-----------|--|
| Youngstown City Schools | Youngstown, OH | Angie Cameron | 2004 | $300,000 | Provide quality academic and recreational afterschool programming for students in grades 5-8 at 3 middle schools in the YCSD. This is achieved through the collaboration of community based organizations, YCSD, certified teachers, and local agencies. |
| Zanesville City Schools Cohort 3 | Zanesville, OH | James McKee | 2004 | $300,000 | The purpose of the CLCs is to provide math, reading, and family literacy assistance to the lowest performing student quartile and their families through a comprehensive and integrated program offering dynamic academic and enrichment activities. |