

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Pennsylvania

Grantee	City	Contact	Award Year	Year One Award	Program Description
Allegheny County Department of Human Services	Pittsburgh	Amy F. Snider	2003	$180,000	DHS' CCLC is an academically-based after-school program where the model is a children's repertory theatre, and the summer component is science-based. The program is administered by Penn State University Cooperative Extension.
Allegheny County DHS-Cohort 2	Pittsburgh	Amy Snider	2004	$385,000	Academically-based out-of-school time program with both after-school and summer components. Model is a structured instructional setting. Program served grades 1-8 in Year 1, will served grades 1-9 in Year 2 and grades 1-10 in Year 3.
Allentown School District	Allentown	Adrienne Trumbower	2003	$350,000	Mosser Village Family Center and Casa Guadalupe are subcontractors providing after school 21stCCLC programs at two locations and 7 grade levels.
Bedford Area School District	Everett	Dr. Walter Curfman	2003	$373,705	The Bedford County 21st Century Community Learning Center Consortium serves students in grades 5-8 in the five public school districts in Bedford County, PA, providing academic remediation, enrichment and recreation four to five days per week after school.
Bedford Area SD-Cohort 2	Everett	Walter Curfman	2004	$184,800	Providing afterschool programming to fourth grade students in all public school districts within Bedford County, Pennsylvania. Programming focuses on academic enrichments, character education, the arts, recreation and career exploration.
Bethlehem Area School District	Bethlehem	Iris Cintron	2003	$350,000	The Bethlehem Area School District has five 21st CCLC sites in operation under this grant funding. Called Project ASPIRE (After School Partnership for Instruction, Recreation, and Enrichment), these sites are located in three elementary and two middle schools.
Bethlehem Area SD-Cohort 2	Bethlehem, PA	Iris Cintron	2004	$413,566	The Bethlehem Area School District has six 21st CCLC sites in operation under this grant funding.
Blair County Human Services Office	Hollidaysburg	Cathy Crum	2004	$346,500	The Blair County 21st Century Community Learning Center after-school project is the result of a three year grant awarded to the Blair County Human Services Office by the Pennsylvania Department of Education.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Pennsylvania

Brownsville Area School District	Brownsville	Dr. Harry Miale	2003	$270,000	Academics are the focus of the four day a week program which is richly supplemented by field trips, technology education, anger-violence management, and alcohol/drug prevention seminars.
Cen-Clear Child Services, Inc.	Philipsburg	Cinde Schuckers	2004	$688,022	Project S.U.C.C.E.S.S. (Schools United in Clearfield County t Empower Students to Succeed) will provide academic, artistic, and cultural enrichment opportunities to help students meet state and local standards in core academic subjects.
Chambersburg Community Improvement Assoc.	Chambersburg	Jim Wolfson	2004	$429,846	The project is to serve at risk children after-school and in summer camps in qualifying schools (project sites). The programs feature academic instruction (tutoring), academic and behavioral enrichment, and recreation.
Chester Community Charter School	Chester	Kim Wilburn	2004	$255,672	Children of Promise is a collaborative effort between Chester Community Charter School (CCCS), Swarthmore College Black Cultural Center, and Eternal Cares Educational Talent Search.
Chester Upland SD	Chester	Carita Morgan	2004	$838,777	The Chester Upland School District and a comprehensive network of community partnerships work together to provide a broad range of educational, cultural, and recreational opportunities for students, their families, and other members of the greater community.
Child Development Centers	Franklin	Rina Nerlich	2003	$350,000	The program serves 4 school districts in Venengo County, PA. The children come from grades 3,4 and 5. Our goal is to increase reading and math skills.
Coatesville School District	Coatesville	Susan Baldwin	2003	$191,533	The SOARR (Students Opportunities for Academics, Resiliency and Recreation) Program was established in three of the elementary schools, Carl Benner (now Gordon), Rainbow and Caln, all of which qualify for Title I funding.
Coatesville SD-Cohort 2	Coatesville	Gail Pippin/ Kathy F	2004	$165,946	The PLUS Program will be established in two elementary and one middle school in the district to address the needs of students of low-income families with associated low academic achievement and social problems.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Pennsylvania

Communities in Schools/Laurel Highlands	Cresson	Mickie Eberhart	2004	$332,878	CIS CLEAR (CIS Centers for Leveraging Education and Resources) will provide middle school after school programs for seven districts across the northern tier of Cambria county as well as a Family Center that will serve all seven districts and their communities.
Community Education Alliance of West Philadelphia	Philadelphia	Abbie Lamb	2004	$143,288	The Belmont Community After School Program serves 150 first through 7th graders, Monday through Thursday.
Congreso de Latinos Unidos, Inc.	Philadelphia	Cheryl Blue	2004	$560,700	The Purpose of the Eastern North Philadelphia Youth Services (ENPYS - pronounced "in peace") Coalition 21st Century Community Learning Center is to provide culturally relevant academically enriching after school programming for community youth.
Connect, Inc.	Washington	Kelly Goedel	2004	$66,100	The LEARN(Linking, Educating And Renewing Neighborhoods) program is designed to improve the academic performance, attendance and behavior of at-risk youth by providing a comprehensive schedule of afterschool activities for students of the Washington School.
Crawford Central School District	Meadville	Suzanne Good	2003	$135,000	CCSD STARS stands for Crawford Central students developing socially, technologically and academically to raise scores.
CSIU/Danville SD	Lewisburg, PA	Susan Hoffman	2004	$187,000	The project is up and running at Danville Elementary School with grades 1-5 participating.
CSIU/Hazleton ASD	Kingston	Regina Villarreal	2004	$269,280	Program serves at risk youth in grades 5 through 8 in an area of rapidly changing demographics and related socioeconomic and educational pressures. Many students are English Language Learners.
CSIU/Shamokin SD	Lewisburg	Kathy Bohinski	2003	$260,000	Project SUCCESS PLUS deals with the social, academic and tutoring skills throughout after school program hours.
Discovery Charter School	Philadelphia	Jacquelyn Kelley	2004	$209,202	Discoveries Beyond School Hours will provide elementary and middle school students a range of opportunities for academic and social enrichment.
Easton Area School District	Esaton	Greg Shoemaker	2004	$152,337	The Cheston 21st Century Community Learning Center is a partnership between Ada B. Cheston Elementary School in the Easton Area School District, Family Connection, and the Easton Family YMCA. This program will provide approximately 100 different students.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Pennsylvania

Erie City School District	Erie	Jeanne Bender	2003	$270,000	The CHAMPS Afterschool Program (funded by 21st Century) is in session three hours each day that school is in session for a full day. The program operates September through May during the school year and five weeks during the summer.
Farrell Area School District	Farrell	Margery Blausen	2003	$289,010	As always, the C.O.O.L. Program provides academic enrichment, community awareness, as well as social and fitness programs for those students in grades 3-9 who have shown a deficiency in reading and/or math.
Farrell SD Cohort 2	Farrell	Lynne Powell	2004	$356,400	21ST CCLC concept as a means to extend the notion of public education beyond the traditional, single district service provider model (Farrell/Sharon SD).
First Philadelphia Charter School	Philadelphia	Stacey Cruise-Clark	2004	$325,000	Our project involves two schools in a very large diverse community. One school's program focuses on the educational, recreational and social needs of middle and highschool students.
Greater Johnstown School District	Johnstown	Ron Kikta	2003	$101,250	An after school learning center that provides academic, artistic, and cultural activities for high school students, grades 9 through 12 to meet the needs of the at-risk population of students within the Greater Johnstown School Distirct.
Greater Johnstown SD Cohort 2	Ebensburg	Ron Kikta	2004	$267,649	The TLC program allows the school district to supplement existing remedial programs with components addressing core needs and also other selfesteem and career needs.
Greene County (AVTS) Career & Technology Center	Waynesburg, P	Linda McCracken	2004	$656,531	The Greene County Career and Technology Center is the fiscal agent for the Greene County 21st CCLC Grant. The 21st CCLC provides Afterschool Program in Grades K -8 to all five School Districts in Greene County.
Harrisburg School District	Harrisburg	Howard Rosen	2003	$236,248	Replication of the TEN Program incorporating the PATHS Curriculum, Parent Home Visiting, and Reading Recovery strategies. Target students are 3-5th graders with risk factors of academic under-achievement.
Harrisburg SD Cohort 2	Harrisburg	Howard Rosen	2004	$316,800	Comprehensive, urban after school program incorporating PATHS and Home Visiting. PSU conducts evaluation.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Pennsylvania

Hollidaysburg Area School District	Hollidaysburg	Michael Wieland	2003	$231,469	The Hollidaysburg Area 21st CCLC provides educational, recreational, health and social programs for children in the Hollidaysburg area that are between the ages 5 to 12.
Imhotep Institute Charter School	Philadelphia	Martin Friedman	2004	$261,092	IICS proposes to provide enrichment activities for personal and academic improvement - expanding academic, athletics, parenting, and cultural programs with home management & entrepreneurial components.
Keystone Central SD	Lock Haven	Steven Kreger	2004	$452,057	Our project consists of three after school sites. They serve our middle school, three of Lock Haven City elementary schools (students are bussed to one elementary to participate in the program) and an elementary site in Renovo.
Laboratory Charter School	Bala Cynwyd	Dr. June Brown	2004	$418,000	The grantee provided students representing 3 schools and students from the catchment area with a standard based, innovative, thematic program. The project director position salary necessitated changing the position from full-time to part-time.
Lackawanna Trail School District	Factoryville	Bonnie Gregory	2003	$92,313	Our project includes serving at-risk children with before and after-school academic and enrichment programs, as well as a six-week summer school program.
Lancaster School District	Lancaster	Arlene S. Rivera	2003	$750,000	Lancaster 21st Century Community Learning Centers is a collaborative effort led by the School District of Lancaster and Community Action Program of Lancaster County and supported by parents, students and community partners.
Lancaster SD Cohort 2	Lancaster	Arlene S. Rivera	2004	$796,746	Our 21st C Project is a partnership between the SDoL, Community Action Program, Bright Side Opportunity Center, Millerville University and Lancaster Career & Technology Center.
Latino Leadership Alliance of Bucks County	Bristol	Amy Gestoso	2004	$92,540	Collaboration with Harry S Truman High School to implement an ESL After School Tutoring Program. Activities include tutoring, educational enrichment activities, and computer programs.
Leadership Learning Partners Charter School	Philadelphia	David Henry	2004	$298,288	The extended day programs provided through LCLC will impact academic achievement and improve the resilience of the community and its children. Curriculum based academic program and cultural enrichment activities.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Pennsylvania

Lehigh Carbon Community College	Nesquehoning	Jeanne Miller	2004	$253,790	The SHINE PRogram is an after-school program for first to third graders in 3 Carbon County School Districts. The program is located in four elementary schools. SHINE also serves children in 3 parochial schools.
McKeesport ASD	McKeesport	Patricia Scales	2004	$168,500	The MASD 21st CCLC, Tiger S.T.R.I.P.E. Academy is an afterschool/summer program for middle school students in grades 7 & 8. The S.T.R.I.P.E. is an acronym for Success Through Remediation, Integration, Pride and Excellence.
Morrisville School District	Morrisville	Darletta Berry-John	2004	$473,151	The goal of the program is to plan, implement, coordinate, expand and integrate education, enrichment and support activities to improve academic achievement and performance, and decrease risk factors that place students at risk for delinquency.
Norris Square Civic Association	Philadelphia	Sandra Foy	2004	$75,000	Thr project provides enhanced services to participants of after-school program. The services include computer lab usage, music, dance, sports, etc).
Norristown Area School District	Norristown	Dr. Bill Dura	2003	$300,000	To provide services to low-income students in our elementary and middle schools by providing safe havens to build basic academic and personal skills.
People for People Charter School	Philadelphia	Monique Ketter	2004	$215,293	This is an after-school program serving grades 1-8, providing aacademic and cultural enrichment activities, entrepreneurship awareness, and family strengthening programs.
Philadelphia Academy Charter School	Philadelphia	Alex Schuh	2004	$280,500	PACS' CenterBridge Project provides students in grades K-12 an enriching after school program in partnership with Philadelphia Health Management Corporation (PHMC), a non-profit addiction counseling, treatment and educational and social services organization.
Philadelphia School District	Philadelphia	Edwina Coverson-B	2003	$2,000,000
Pittsburgh Public Schools	Pittsburgh	Carolyn Rychcik	2003	$393,750	The Pittsburgh Public School's 21st Century After School Prgram provides flexible, quality after-school programming in a safe environment for students in grades 3rd-5th.
Pottstown School District	Pottstown	Orlando Taylor	2004	$418,631	The Pottstown School District has partnered with the Pottstown Family Center to establish four 21st Century Community Learning sites, two school-based; one faith-based; and one community-based.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Pennsylvania

Preparatory Charter School	Philadelphia	John Badagliacco	2003	$128,969	PREP for Success is an equal access, early awareness college program providing direct academic remediation and enrichment activities during non-school hours to the student populations of the Christopher Columbus Charter School and PREP Charter High School.
Presbyterian Children's Village Services	Philadephia	Cydney Irving	2004	$299,200	Our grant was awarded for the operation of two centers in Southwest Philadelphia. Our centers are housed in two urban elementary schools. Our students face all of the obstacles and barriers associated with living in an empoverished neighborhood.
Project H.O.M.E.	Philadelphia	Cindy Ferguson	2004	$249,275
Project Mercy	Philadelphia	Sister Stella Mary C	2004	$80,046	Project Mercy is a after care program in the North Philadelphia area. We provide services for Pk to 6 grade. We response to the academic and social needs of our children by monitoring homework and providing enrichment activities.
Reading School District	Reading	Cheryl McCann	2003	$299,181	Our program provides after-school and summer programming for over 400 students and their families. Tutoring, academic remediation, enrichment, and adult ESL and GED classes are provided along with a daily hot meal.
Reading SD Cohort 2	Reading	Sue Costa	2004	$479,814	We provide homework assistance, intensive reading and math tutoring, and enrichment activities to 400+ students. Dinner is served daily. Family are invited to take classes and participate in joint activities.
Renaissance Advantage Charter School	Philadelphia	Donyatta Tinson-Sn	2003	$351,325	The Renaissance Learning Lab includes a comprehensive after school program, summer school, Saturday enrichment, parent education, and community involvement. We have served about 200 children daily during the school year.
Retired Senior Volunteer Corps Cohort 2	Harrisburg	Judy Bentz	2004	$96,630	To provide latch key students with a safe learning environment for eight weeks during the summer. The program will assist students with maintaining or improving reading and math grade levels while providing enriching activities, arts programming, science.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Pennsylvania

Riverside Beaver County School District	Ellwood City	Ron Gibson	2003	$270,000	The WE CREATE After School Learning Centers Project is a consortium of 4 school districts and 3 community agencies. WE CREATE provides after school homework help and tutoring for 200 children in grades 5-8.
Ronald H. Brown Charter School	Harrisburg	Rae Talley	2004	$268,987	TO involved the students of Roanld H.Brown Charter School more in the Harrisburg Community. As well as, to bring the ARTS and Family connection to back to the school house.
RSVP Inc (Newport School District)	Harrisburg	Judy Bentz	2003	$251,240	To provide an after school program for 135 students that emphasizes basic skill building through alternative learning to lower the percentage of students in the Below Basic levels of Math and Reading on the PSSA.
Saint Kather Drexel School	Chester	Joann Carroll	2004	$147,634	The SKD Community Enrichment Program provides our community with a safe haven to engage in organized/well supervised programs/services in the areas of:Literacy Education,Integrated health/nutrition/social skill development programs/services.
Schuylkill IU #29	Frackville	Meghan Becker	2004	$299,561	The Schuylkill Intermediate, serving as the fiscal agent, has formed a consortium with six local school districts.
Scranton School District	Scranton	Nancy Hlavaty	2003	$409,600	This project puts after school programs in 10 of the district's 13 elementary schools. Students who are not proficient on the PSSA and/or Terra Nova in math and reading have been targeted for this program.
Scranton SD Cohort 2	Scranton	Nancy Hlvaty	2004	$519,522	This project puts after school programs in 3 elementary and 3 intermediate schools. Students who are not proficient in the PSSA in math and reading have been targeted for this program.
Southern Columbia SD	Catawissa	Barbara Lombardo	2004	$356,129	Southern Columbia Community Learning Centers provide Afterschool Tutoring for grades 3 through 8, an Afterschool Enrichment and Discovery Program for grades 3 though 8, Art Enrichment for grades 3 through 5, and Summer Fun-da-Mentals.
Southwestern PA Human Services/Monessen	Monessen	Kim Egidi	2004	$156,000	The Monessen Family Center, in close partnership with the Monessen city School District will create two 21st Century Community Learning Centers to serve to serve the students and families of Monessen, PA.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Pennsylvania

Sunrise of Philadelphia	Philadelphia	Benjamin J. Di Tullio	2003	$134,250	We are a collaborative Learning Center that seeks to provide a continuous band of service delivery for youth in grades 1 through 12.
Temple University, Center for Social Policy and Community Development	Philadelphia	Anita Lydaker	2004	$388,030	We serve middle and high school students at two sites in North Philadelphia: the Daniel Boone school, and William Penn High School. Students receive academic enrichment, career exploration, leadership courses, and recreational activities.
Travelers' Aid of Philadelphia	Philadelphia	Melcher Monk/Travelers Aid	2004	$194,470	Travelers Aid provides academic enrichment and Health & Fitness Instruction for school age residents of the Travelers Aid Family Shelter, Families in Transition clients, and community participants.
Tuscarora Intermediate Unit/Migrant	Lewistown	Helen Guisler	2003	$138,185	We provide academic and enrichment activities for students in afterschool programming. We provide services to academically at-risk students from all sectors of education including home school, private school and public school.
Upper Adams School District	Gettysburg, PA	Linda Moulder	2004	$466,620	After school program with academic support, social skill curriculum, cultural activities on Saturdays and Parent Education component.
Upper Darby School District	Drexel Hill	Abby Lang	2004	$148,488	Upper Darby School District, Christ Lutheran Community Outreach Corporation, and Beverly Hills Middle School are partners in the Peers Encouraging Peers (PEP) After-school Program to increase the academic achievement and social resiliency skills of students.
Variety Club	Philadelphia	Andrew Pack	2004	$360,360	Variety Club has after school and summer programs for children with disabilities throughout the city of Philadelphia and is working on opening more programs in the fall. Our programs focus on building life skills experiences, community independence, health
West Philadelphia Achievement Charter Sch.	Philadelphia	Stacy Phillips	2003	$333,450	The goal of the Soaring To New Heights Project is to improve reading and math skills, as well as to improve the overall quality of life for all participating families.
Wilksburg School District	Wilksburg	Karen Payne	2003	$135,000	Wilksburg community has needed an afterschool program for a long time. The children need a structured place/program to go when school is out. The 21st CLC has given the middle school and high school students a place to go and enjoy being there.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Pennsylvania

Wilkinsburg SD-Cohort 2	Wilkinsburg	Karen Payne	2004	$353,950	This project will serve the students in the elementary schools, grades 3-6 during school year and grades 1-6 in the summer. The program provides academic enrichment as well as social and recreational opportunities for the students, parents and community
Williamsport Area SD	Williamsport	David Wright	2004	$325,000	This project had a late start, with an effective date of March 1, 2005 and contract finalization of June 30, 2005, delaying many operations.
Wireless Neighborhood	Pittsburgh	Stephen Mac Isaac	2004	$308,000	The Pittsburgh LEARNS program serves 1st and 2nd grade students attending one of four Pittsburgh Public Schools - Ft. Pitt, Fulton, Greenfield and Vann. Each school has partnered with a community organization which delivers after school programming.
Women's Christian Alliance	Philadelphia	Constance Hatchett	2004	$68,560	Programming that provides enrichment activities in areas such as in reading, writing, math, the arts, language and social growth and development.
Woodland Hills SD	Pittsburgh	Celeste Covington	2004	$403,510	Project is referred to as the S.H.I.N.E. (Students Hooked Into Neighborhood Education) Tutoring Program which takes place after school in community-based sites.
York City School District	York	Sharon M. Ritter	2003	$450,000	The number of students anticipated to attend the 21st Century Program was lower due to construction at the high school. The middle school sites were used by high school for their extra curricular activities.
York City SD-Cohort 2	York	Sharon Ritter	2004	$472,211	We are a 21st Century Community Learning Center located in the School District of the city of York, PA. Students from all 5 of our elementary schools participate in the community learning centers at two sites.
Young Inspiration, Inc.	Uniontown	Alice Coleman	2004	$387,227	Young Inspiration strives to: (1) Provide a safe, drug free, supervised environment for youth offering character building sessions; (2) Assist students in meeting or exceeding state standards in required academic subjects.
Young Scholars Charter School	Philadelphia	Joseph Rodia	2004	$122,595	To provide quality after school care in academics and other enriching activities to ensure children have the opportunity to grow in a positive meaning making environment.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Pennsylvania

Youth Places	Pittsburgh	David Anderson	2004	$347,199	YouthPlaces is an initiative designed to engage youth most at risk ages 12-18 in positive afterschool program activities, outreaching to youth from high risk neighborhoods that do not traditionally attend afterschool programs.
--------------	------------	----------------	------	-----------	--