

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Texas

Grantee	City	Contact	Award Year	Year One Award	Program Description
Academy of Dallas	Dallas	Ronny Young	2004	$160,264
Agua Dulce ISD	Agua Dulche	Billy Simms	2004	$875,000
Alief ISD	Houston	Debra Goolsby	2003	$468,221	Alief will expand a previously offered after-school program for 4 middle schools. The programs created an environment in which students improved academic proficiency while developing leadership, communication, and social skills.
Alief ISD	Houston	Shanceler Terry	2004	$499,096
Amarillo ISD	Amarillo	Bethany Payne	2004	$859,950	The Amarillo ISD program includes four Community Learning Centers at elementary schools and one Center which involves a partnership between the school district and Wesley Community Center.
Austin	Austin	Ruth Becker	2003	$875,000	The 21st CCLC grant program represents a collaborative effort among Austin ISD and many community based organizations to help young people and their families at 1 middle school and four elementary schools.
Austin ISD	Austin	Ruth Becker	2004	$875,000	Austin ISD has designated all of the campuses as "Blueprint" schools, targeting them for focused attention because of low performance.
Austin ISD	Austin	Shirlene Justice	2004	$875,000	The purpose of this proposal is to seek support for out-of-school programs in five participating campuses located in two economically depressed and high crime areas of Austin, Texas.
Austin ISD	Austin	Shirlene Justice	2004	$875,000	The purpose of this proposal is to seek funding for out-of-school programs on five elementary campuses.
Bastrop ISD	Bastrop	Tamera Stark	2004	$699,925	The CHARGE (Community Helping Academics Reach Goals of Excellence) Program will establish the CLCs in the four campuses identified as Title I schools and demonstrating significant differences in the performance on TAKS testing by sub-populations.
Beeville ISD	Beeville	Dee Dee Bernal	2004	$545,393
Birdville	Haltom City	Kathy Handler	2003	$874,997	The mission is to prepare all children to be successful citizens in the 21st Century. The proposed program will provide academic support, promote child wellness and community involvement for the benefit of the targeted students.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Texas

Blanco ISD	Blanco	Lula Corley	2004	$175,000	The Blanco CCLC KIDS Club program is built on a three-tiered foundation of tutorial guidance, technology-based academic support, and homework assistance.
Brownsville	Brownsville	Diana Clive	2003	$875,000
Bryan ISD	Bryan	Linda Mohr	2004	$510,131	The proposed 21st CCLC project, E-xtreme-E-xperiences (X2), is based on a theory of change that seeks to implement programs and services that respond to school, family and school issues and ultimately to impact student engagement.
Center ISD	Center	Lupe Guerrero	2004	$625,262	The Academic Centers for Enrichment will provide for PK-8 afterschool programming at 4 centers located at 4 school sites. Programming includes academic enrichment, tutorials, youth development. and parent education/ involvement.
Commerce ISD	Commerce	Danna Myers	2004	$848,826	Commerce ISD, Terrell ISD, Wills Point ISD, Kemp ISD, and Avalon ISD are five diverse North Texas school districts that have formed a collaborative to improve their efforts to meet the needs of their students.
Community in Schools of Brazoria County, Inc.	Angleton	Robert Garcia	2004	$758,172
Connally ISD	Waco	Terri O'Dell	2004	$694,779	The Texas 21st CCLC Project POWER proposal will implement programs designed to prevent problem behaviors that put adolescents at-risk for academic failure and establish a community learning environment.
Conroe	Conroe	Sallie Knox	2003	$699,684
Corpus Christi	Corpus Christi	Toni Moynihan-McC	2003	$875,000	The program will be available to all students attending the 5 middle school campus sites and the children attending campuses in each site's feeder area. The program will provide positive environments and enriching age appropriate activities
Dallas	Dallas	Joyce Kendrick	2003	$799,024	The Texas 21st CCLC, Cycle 1 details the program requirements and highlights how the project will serve the target population by establishing community learning centers in five high needs schoools, including two low performing schools.
Dallas	Dallas	Mouna Pohan	2003	$820,955	The Learning Zone project is a vision of revitalization in each of the five school's community through synergistic adaptation.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Texas

Dallas	Dallas	DEDRA ARTHUR	2003	$794,205	The Texas 21st CCLC, Cycle 1 details the program requirements and highlights how the project will serve the target population by establishing community learning centers in five high need schools, including two low performing schools.
Dallas	Dallas	Lisa Clifton	2003	$845,955	The Bridge to Success project is a vision of revitalization in each of the five school's community through synergistic adaptation.
Dallas	Dallas	Aundrita Smith	2003	$792,865	The Texas 21st CCLC, Cycle 1 details the program requirements and highlights how the project will serve the target population by establishing community learning centers in five high needs schools, including two low performing schools.
Dallas ISD	Dallas	Mattie Richardson	2004	$814,073	The Achievement Connection project will assist high-risk students and their families by establishing community learning centers in five high-need middle schools.
Dallas ISD	Dallas	Keesha Moore	2004	$799,074	The Texas 21st CCLC project entitled Achievement Avenue, plans to provide additional opportunities for students to participate in, reading/language arts, math, and science instruction.
Dallas ISD	Dallas	Melinda Hoffmann	2004	$848,922	The 21st Century "After-School LAB - Learning After the Bell" program will address the needs of enrolled students who are at-risk for educational failure because of a combination of educational, social, and economic barriers.
Dallas ISD	Dallas	RYAN THORNTON	2004	$812,852	The 21st Century "Project Success" program will address the needs of enrolled students who are at-risk for educational failure because of a combination of educational, social, and economic barriers.
Dallas ISD	Dallas	debra salter	2004	$809,280	The Dallas ISD is submitting this proposal for funding to implement a locally developed, project referred to as "The Learning Place". This project will provide services to five elementary schools.
Dallas ISD	Dallas	Kayla Kelley	2004	$809,280	The 21st Century schools and local CBO's worked with students, parents, and community members and determined that Dallas ISD needs strong programs that provide quality academic, enrichment, and family literacy programs.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Texas

Dickinson ISD	Dickinson	Vicki Mims	2003	$350,000	Local needs were examined from four varied viewpoints: schools, students, parents, and community. Based on the identified needs, five principles of effectiveness were developed for the Dickinson 21st Century Learning Centers program.
Dilley ISD	Dilley	Lou O'Neil	2004	$525,000	With our proposed after school and summer programs we will serve Dilley ISD at risk children by setting a strong foundation for their future.
Donna	Donna	Guadalupe Saenz	2003	$874,995	"The Learning Neighborhood" Project will serve students by providing opportunities for academic enrichment, homework, tutorial services as well as services, programs and activities.
Driscoll ISD	Driscoll	Cynthia Garcia	2004	$118,000	The Texas 21st CCLC program will provide the opportunities for academic enrichment, including providing tutorial services to help children to meet State and local student academic achievement standards in core academic subjects.
Edinburg CISD	Edinburg	Lorenzo Moralez	2004	$874,998	NUESTRO (Neighbors Uniting to Enhance Success Through Resources & Opportunities) will focus on the educational, developmental, & recreational needs of the Edinburg CISD through a myriad of activities.
Fort Worth	Fort Worth	Aurelia Diaz-Deleon	2003	$875,000	Texas 21st CCLC is intended to provide opportunities for academic enrichment to meet State and local student academic achievement standards in core academic subjects; Offer students a broad array of additional youth development services.
Fort Worth ISD	Fort Worth	Sue Matkin	2004	$875,000	Fort Worth ISD proposes CCLC on 1 elementary, 3 middle schools and 1 high school campuses. Program offerings at the center will ALL share a goal of improved academic achievement by students.
Fort Worth ISD	Fort Worth	Sue Matkin	2004	$700,000
Fort Worth ISD	Fort Worth	Sue Matkin	2004	$875,000	FWISD proposes 21st Century Learning Centers (CLC) on 1 elementary, and 4 middle school campuses with fiscal management by FWISD's 21st Century Office.
Galena Park ISD	Houston	Dee Mattox-Hall	2004	$329,004	The four schools in GPISD applying for the 21st CCLC have more than 70% of their students identified as economically disadvantaged/educationally disadvantaged.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Texas

Greater San Antonio After-School All-Stars	San Antonio	Jane Macon	2004	$875,000	The Greater San Antonio After-School All-Stars continues to foster its mission: to provide opportunities for inner-city youth to participate in sports, educational, cultural, and community enrichment programs; to build self-esteem; and to encourage youth...
Gulf Shores Academy	Houston	Ms. Matthews	2004	$250,853	Gulf Shore Academy's 21st CCLC Program is designed to address and meet the needs of students attending two campuses.
Harlingen CISD	Harlingen	Art Cavazos	2004	$874,856	The proposed after-school program, "People Encouraging All Kids Success" (PEAKS) has been carefully designed to meet the purposes and objectives of the Texas 21st CCLC program, Cycle 2.
Harris County Department of Education	Houston	Shannon Bishop	2003	$747,283
Harris County Department of Education	Houston	Shannon Bishop	2003	$709,000
Harris County Department of Education	Houston	Shannon Bishop	2003	$749,455
Harris County Department of Education	Houston	Shannon Bishop	2004	$839,003
Harris County Department of Education	Houston	Shannon Bishop	2004	$839,053
Harris County Department of Education	Houston	Shannon Bishop	2004	$699,955	The proposal builds on the momentum of existing local efforts in after-school by linking together high-need Harris County schools with CASE (the Cooperative for After-School Enrichment).
Harris County Department of Education	Houston	Shannon Bishop	2004	$524,722	This proposal builds on the momentum of existing local efforts in after-school by linking together high-need Harris County schools with CASE (the Cooperative for After-School Enrichment).
Harris County Department of Education	Houston	Shannon Bishop	2004	$874,948	This proposal builds on the momentum of existing local efforts in after-school by linking together high-need Harris County schools with CASE (the Cooperative for After-School Enrichment).
Harris County Department of Education	Houston	Shannon Bishop	2004	$874,653	This proposal builds on the momentum of existing local efforts in after-school by linking together high-need Harris County schools with CASE (the Cooperative for After-School Enrichment).

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Texas

Harris County Department of Education	Houston	Shannon Bishop	2004	$874,253	This proposal builds on the momentum of existing local efforts in after-school by linking together high-need Harris County schools with CASE (the Cooperative for After-School Enrichment).
Harris County Department of Education	Houston	Shannon Bishop	2004	$699,204	This proposal builds on the momentum of existing local efforts in after-school by linking together high-need Harris County schools with CASE (the Cooperative for After-School Enrichment).
Hearne ISD	Hearne	Susan Jackson	2004	$350,000
Hempstead ISD	Hempstead	Tonya Bronikowski	2004	$681,159	The project will provide after-school, summer recess and community-based activities for students, pre-K-12, who are at high risk for educational failure and for their families in the Hempstead ISD.
Hidalgo ISD	Hidalgo	Santos Perez	2004	$874,960	The RGV Consortium Project's mission is to prepare all children to be successful citizens in the 21st century, to help young people of Texas stay in school, successfully learn, as well as prepare for life.
Houston	Houston	Jonnelle Hollins	2003	$870,499	The targeted schools have named this program E.S.C.A.P.E. (Enriched Science, Culture and Academics Produces Excellence). E.S.C.A.P.E., a 21st CCLC grant program, will allow the opportunity to develop and implement academic-based enrichment programs.
Houston	Houston	Reginald Bush	2003	$700,000	The proposed 21st CCLC project of the Acres Homes Coalition Administrative District, PROJECT NEW BEGINNING, plans to harvest some of this discretionary time by engaging students and their parents in an after/before school or summer program.
Houston	Houston	Jonnelle Hollins	2003	$873,027	The five participating campuses recognize the salient necessity for student-driven learning and development activities and services to be aligned with classes from the regular school day.
Houston ISD	Houston	Jonnelle Hollins	2004	$875,000	This proposed 21st CCLC program entitled Project FAMILY (Five After-school Models Initiating Learning Year-round) will bring coherence and continuity to after-school academic and enrichment activities.
Houston ISD	Houston	Genoveva Torres	2004	$875,000	This 21st CCLC project entitled North STAR (Schools Together Achieving Results) is a partnership between five public schools in the North District of the Houston ISD and Project GRAD.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Texas

Houston ISD	Houston	Nyelene Qasem	2004	$875,000	The administration of the Houston ISD and the YMCA of Greater Houston have joined together to develop after-school programs for five elementary schools that would serve as sites for 21st CCLCs. The 21st CCLC project is viewed as a way to provide their ser
Houston ISD	Houston	Jonnelle Hollins	2004	$875,000	The 21st CCLC project entitled GRAD-uating Davis in the 21st Century is a partnership between five schools in Houston's Near Northside.
Houston ISD	Houston	Jonnelle Hollins	2004	$839,704	Houston ISD has joint forces with the YMCA of Greater Houston - they view the 21st CCLC project as a way to provide their services and expertise on-site to families who would not otherwise have the advantage of YMCA services.
Houston ISD	Houston	Jonnelle Hollins	2004	$698,860	There are no out of school programs available for the students at these schools in the Northwest Cluster. The Texas 21st CCLC proposal entitled Project SAFETY: Students, Adults, & Families seeking Education Together Year-round to live up to its name throu
Hughes Springs ISD	Hughes Spring	Kim Stovall	2004	$516,399	Based on a variety of assessment findings, Hughes Springs, Cumby and Linden-Kildare cannot serve the at-risk children and parents within the community without taking aggressive steps to extend its offerings beyond the traditional school day.
IDEA Academy	Donna	Christie Gonzalez	2004	$175,000	IDEA Academy exists to increase the aspirations of students through an accelerated school curricula and extended-day program with higher goals for student achievement.
Irving	Irving	Amaris Bravo	2003	$175,000	The 21st CCLC at JRG will guarantee increased academic achievement by providing age-appropriate academic, social and recreational activities along with health and social services in a safe, drug-free, supervised environment.
Irving ISD-Community Connections	Irving	Nicky Weaver	2004	$700,000	The Texas 21st CCLC will be implemented at four campuses: 2 elementary and 2 middle schools. The Community Connections activities will be targeted toward students identified as at-risk for academic failure and their parents.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Texas

Jesse Jackson Academy	Houston	Warner Henson	2004	$175,000	Jesse Jackson Academy is a 3rd generation charter school in its fifth year of providing instructional services to students of surrounding Houston, Texas community.
Karnes City	Karnes City	Bernard Zarosky	2003	$875,000	The goal of the Karnes County 21st Century Community Learning Centers (KCCLC) program is to reduce the risk factors that contribute to educational failure and to enhance the protective factors that contribute to academic success.
Kermit ISD	Kermit	Brenda Jackson	2004	$699,834	The proposed Kermit 21st CCLC project will provide services for a rural, isolated school district with students who are at risk for educational failure. Kermit 21st CCLC will provide tutorial services to help at-risk children to meet State and local standards.
La Marque ISD	La Marque	Thomasine Allen	2004	$329,394	The Texas 21st CCLC program will create centers and operate after-school centers at two elementary campuses.
Lewisville ISD	Lewisville	Penelope Reddell	2004	$875,000	The Lewisville ISD Project, "Learning Beyond the Bell" established 5 after-school and summer centers to provide academic and enrichment programs.
Lubbock-Cooper ISD	Lubbock	Gary Frye	2004	$875,000	The West Texas CLC Consortium (WTCLCC) will allow the 5 school districts to work w/ local Community & Faith Based Organizations to form a total program.
Lubbock ISD	Lubbock	Ann Hannel	2004	$681,257	The 21st CCLC program will offer before and after school program sites on the four campuses to offer safe, easily accessible facilities for students normally in self-care.
Manor ISD	Manor	Tameka Thomas	2004	$700,000	The 21st Century Grant Program "Project Mustang" seeks to provide quality out-of-school time which will include both educational and enrichment programming for students and their families at campuses in Manor ISD.
Mason ISD	Mason	Nancy Wooldridge	2004	$175,000	The district's strategic plan addresses the need to provide after-school academic, enrichment and recreational safe havens for students, thus increasing opportunities for schools to become the extended learning centers of their communities.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Texas

Mercedes ISD	Mercedes	Cynthia Wise Galva	2004	$524,228	Mercedes ISD, is the 6th poorest school district in the State. Project Super Champ Consortium was formed to provide for the academic and enrichment needs of these schools.
Mercedes ISD	Mercedes	Cynthia Wise Galva	2004	$874,757	The Texas 21st CCLC program will provide the children accelerated programs of instruction in reading, math and science to enable project students to progress through the grade levels and meet TAKS standards.
Midland Academy	Midland	Lee Culver	2004	$175,000	Midland Academy Charter School was founded on the simple conviction that a first-rate education is the birthright of every individual, that all children can learn, and that every child should be challenged to reach his or her full potential.
Mission City	Mission	Aurora Delgado	2003	$175,000	The mission of the 21st Century Community Learning Centers Project Lifelines for Success I is to provide LEP students with academic enrichment, including additional services for character, culture and leadership education.
Mount Pleasant ISD	Mt. Pleasant	Kaye Nelms	2004	$676,965	MPISD desires to create a multi-dimensional After School Program at five centers- "The MPISD M&R Block, We make TAKS easy." The "M" stands for math and the "R" stands for reading.
Mt . Pleasant ISD	Mt. Pleasant	Kaye Nelms	2004	$288,395	Mt. Pleasant ISD will develop a 21st CCLC called the Delta Project that will offer 3 basic kinds of services working simultaneously to help students experience success in school. These services, offered at two safe locations.
North East ISD	San Antonio	Becky Stoughton	2004	$875,000	Project ASAP will establish 5 Texas 21st CCLC in the NEISD District. The program will address the needs of enrolled students who are at-risk for educational failure because of a combination of educational, social, & economic barriers.
Northside ISD	San Antonio	Ester Buendia	2003	$875,000	The Northside Learning Tree Project will provide a safe, supervised after-school antidote for low academic achievement, gang involvement, drug use, and crime. It will do so by providing year round academically enriching experiences for students.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Texas

Northside ISD	San Antonio	Ester Buendia	2004	$874,999	The 21st CCLC will be implemented at five inner-city elementary schools where the need for quality extended-day learning and enrichment opportunities is the greatest.
Northwest Preparatory Academy	Houston	Erik Singleton	2004	$160,070	Northwest Preparatory Academy has designed a program that will excite and engage eligible students and family members by issuing a challenge to learn to be successful. The Ace the RACE (Realizing Academic Challenges in Education) project has been designed
Odem-Edroy ISD	Odem	Bill Hoelscher	2004	$524,932	The 21st CCLC program will create an environment in which children who are most at risk for academic failure - and poor life choices - can engage in meaningful learning and life experiences.
Pflugerville ISD	Pflugerville	Mark Billingsley	2004	$849,199	The Striving Students Toward Academic Richness (Striving STAR) Program seeks to provide quality out-of-school time educational and enrichment programming for students and their families at campuses in Pflugerville ISD.
Point Isabel ISD	Port Isabel	Rudy Garcia	2004	$700,000	PROJECT PUENTE (Port Isabel United in Educating Neighborhoods Toward Equity) was developed in order to meet the educational and enrichment needs of students and their families.
Poteet ISD	Poteet	Elizabeth Batto	2004	$350,000	PISD is proposing to provide the Students Achieving in Fun Environments (SAFE) Program to all eligible youth and families attending Poteet EI and Poteet JH.
Raymondville ISD	Raymondville	Alberto Trevino	2004	$700,000	Project HELP was developed to help overcome educational and workforce deficiencies through an innovative after school design that engages families in improving the educational attainment of both students and parents for a better quality of life.
Richardson Independent School District	Richardson	Barbara Baird	2003	$754,239	The 21st Century Learning Center program will provide interesting, motivating TEKS-based activities before/after school and during the summer.
Robstown ISD	Robstown	Rey Moreno	2004	$875,000	The program, Project Clue, will ensure effective after school strategies and programming that provides a college bound theme through a unique college engendering system.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Texas

Round Rock ISD	Round Rock	Willa Rosen	2004	$874,974	The After School Promoting Intensive Remediation & Enrichment (ASPIRE) Program seeks to expand district efforts jointly with the YMCA of Greater Williamson County & the Round Rock community to provide quality out-of-school time programs.
San Antonio ISD	San Antonio	Hilda Salas	2003	$875,000	The vision of Project Reconnect is to establish community learning centers in five low performing/priority middle schools that will provide an exciting, safe and richly diverse program of educational, social/family and health services.
San Antonio ISD	San Antonio	Willie Taylor	2004	$875,000	The Project Youth Connection establishes expectations of excellence and equity in student academic performance, implements professional development to build capacity on the campus, coordinates efforts to provide family involvement opportunities, creates a
San Antonio ISD	San Antonio	Peggy Stark	2004	$875,000	Prevention, remediation and acceleration strategies via Project Achieve, coupled with an appropriate curriculum for a diverse student body, highly qualified, certified teachers, an alliance with the community, and strong leadership.
San Antonio Youth Centers, Inc.	San Antonio	Cynthia Ortiz	2004	$700,000	Students at the Five Star centers will receive comprehensive educational, youth development, art and family enrichment activities.
San Benito	San Benito	Luis Gonzales	2003	$875,000	Project G.R.A.D. (Guidance Resources for Academics Diplomas) consists of five rural school campuses.
San Benito CISD	San Benito	Santiago Lopez	2004	$875,000	THE COOL PROJECT (Creating Opportunities for Optimal Learning) is a collaborative partnership between the San Benito Consolidated ISD and the UT at Brownsville to overcome educational & workforce deficiencies through an innovative after school design.
San Benito CISD	San Benito	Abel Fonseca	2004	$875,000	PROJECT CARE consist of five rural school campuses who plan to integrate 21st Century Community Learning funding in order to supplement a comprehensive PK-19 plan.
Snook ISD	Snook	Gerri Maxwell	2004	$251,274	It is the desire of the Snook ISD district improvement committee to expand current after-school instructional interventions and provide enrichment activities for both elementary and secondary students.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Texas

Spring Branch	Houston	Regina Kirkpatrick	2003	$600,000	The proposed 21st CCLC Program, entitled Project BRIDGE, will provide a solid foundation for students and parents to span the gap created between low-income families and their more affluent peers.
Spring Branch	Houston	Regina Kirkpatrick	2003	$678,300	Students and parents in the SBISD need opportunities to expand their Horizons. This word symbolizes the success, hope, vision and future created for participating students and parents.
Spring Branch ISD	Houston	Regina Kirkpatrick	2004	$874,999
Sulphur Springs ISD	Sulphur Spring	Holly Hicks	2004	$350,000	The vision of Sulphur Springs ISD, the Boys and Girls Club and collaborative partners is to establish 2 21st CCLC Sites that will provide an exciting, safe and richly diverse program.
Taylor ISD	Taylor	Angela Allen	2004	$525,000	The Taylor ISD's Duck University project will provide an exciting, safe, drug-free after school program that integrates academic enrichment, homework centers, tutoring, physical activities, family health education, after school & summer care.
Tekoa Academy	Port Arthur	Charles White	2003	$175,000	Tekoa Academy is an open enrollement charter school serving students primarily from a low-income neighborhood in the southern sector of Port Arthur. The 21st CCLC would foster in-school and out-of-school success for students and their families.
Temple ISD	Temple	Kathleen Bethke-Bl	2004	$661,659	Temple ISD's mission for Project F.O.C.U.S. (Families, Organization, & Community United @ School) is to provide a safe, accessible, drug-free, nurturing & educational after-school, summer recess & adult education program.
Temple ISD	Temple	Kathleen Behtke-Bl	2004	$573,205	Temple ISD's mission for Project F.O.C.U.S. is to provide a safe, accessible, drug-free, nurturing, and educational after-school, summer recess and adult education program where students and their families can gather and obtain skills and support.
Valley View ISD	Pharr	Diana Gomez	2004	$875,000	The proposed 21st CCLC Program, KIDS KLUB will accelerate learning and increase students achievement for at-risk children and their families from the Valley View ISD.
Waco	Waco	Brenda Hummel	2003	$875,000	The 21st CCLC program will target students and their families who attend five targeted schools by providing after-school and summer activities at safe, easily accessible facilities on campus.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Texas

West Central Texas Council of Governments	Abilene	Michelle Parker	2003	$697,409	In order to reduce the risk factors and promote student achievement and success, the Books and Beyond 21st CCLC Project will be implemented in 5 campus areas.
West Central Texas Council of Government	Abilene	Michelle Parker	2004	$699,950	The "Book & Beyond Learning Centers" will implement a hands-on education after-school and summer program in Haskell and Jones County that focuses on math, reading, science skills and technical literacy skills, along with enrichment activities.
West Oso ISD	Corpus Christ	Mary Jane Garza	2004	$585,978	The Texas 21st CCLC program will provide students daily academic enrichment activities to help children meet state & local student academic achievement standards in core academic subjects.
YMCA of Greater San Antonio & the Hill Country	San Antonio	Catherine Alvarado	2003	$175,000	