

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Virginia

Grantee	City	Contact	Award Year	Year One Award	Program Description
Accomack County Public Schools-Cohort 1	Accomack, Va	Lawrence, Jeanne	2003	$185,590
AHC Inc. (RE) -Cohort 1	Arlington	Endo, Jennifer	2003	$165,242	A collaboration between school and affordable housing community to provide afterschool homework help, tutoring and enrichment to the low-income children of Randolph Elementary School. We are serving 3/4 of the children who attend the school.
AHC, Inc. (CS) - Cohort 3	Arlington	Jennifer Endo	2005	$145,000	Carlin Springs Elementary School and its partners, AHC Inc. (affordable housing developer) and Greenbrier Learning Center (after-school program provider) will provide a comprehensive array of academic support and enrichment activities during out-of-school time.
Albemarle County Public Schools - Cohort 3	Charlottesville	Ms. Debora Collins	2004	$145,000	Club Yancey is an after-school project that will provide academic tutoring, mentoring, enrichment opportunities, nutrition/recreation opportunities, and designated services for families.
Alexandria City Public Schools-Cohort 1-ME	Alexandria	John Grymes	2003	$180,000	At Jefferson-Houston and Maury schools, the academic and enrichment blocks are offered on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays with a third of the students participating in enrichment and two-thirds of the students participating in academics.
Alexandria City Public Schools-Cohort 2-JA	Alexandria	John Grymes	2004	$170,729	At Jefferson-Houston and Maury schools, the academic and enrichment blocks are offered on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays with a third of the students participating in enrichment and two-thirds of the students participating in academics.
Amelia County Public Schools - Cohort 3	Amelia	Sylvia Reid	2004	$145,000	Amelia County's Community and Elementary School Success (ACCESS) program is a comprehensive before-school, after-school and summer program that will serve students and their parents at the Amelia County Elementary School.
Amherst County Public Schools-Cohort 2	Amherst	Teresa Crouch	2004	$192,000	FAST is an innovative program that works with families of children ages four to nine. FAST gives parents and children an opportunity to spend quality time together, enjoy one another and participate more fully and comfortably in their school.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Virginia

Appomattox County Public Schools - Cohort 3	Appomattox	Susan Shorter	2005	$185,454	Appomattox County School has started the Early to Rise after school program that runs M-Th for 26 weeks. The program stresses reading and writing small group tutorials.
Augusta County Public Schools - Cohort 3	Fishersville	Lori Cox	2004	$135,000	We will provide an after school program including homework help, tutoring, and enrichment activities. Family activities are incorporated in the program to strengthen the connection between school and home.
Bedford County Public Schools-Cohort 1 Moneta Elem	Bedford	Gay M. Shrum	2003	$181,000	Our Project provides academic, enrichment, childcare, and parent-involvement activities for students and parents at Moneta Elementary School. After-school and summer activities are closely linked to regular schoolday activities.
Bedford County Public Schools (BC) - Cohort 3	Bedford	Tammy Parlier	2005	$171,000	The program at Body Camp will provide academic, enrichment, and childcare activities for students as well as programs to increase parental involvement in the students' academic success.
Bedford County Public Schools (BE) - Cohort 3	Bedford	Tammy Parlier	2005	$153,000	The program at Bedford Elementary will offer a wide array of enrichment and remediation programs as well as numerous opportunities for parental involvement in the school. Activities will be scheduled after school, on Saturdays, and during summer breaks.
Boys & Girls Clubs of New River Valley - Cohort 2	Roanoke	Ms. K. Rebecca Em	2004	$160,000	Our Club exists to provide a positive, safe, and fun place for kids after school. We offer many learning opportunities to assist students in achieving academic success in meeting state and local standards in core academic subjects.
Boys & Girls Clubs of Roanoke Valley - Cohort 2	Roanoke	Ms. K. Rebecca Em	2004	$128,869	A fun and exciting Community Learning Center that will provide learning opportunities to assist students in meeting state and local standards in core academic subjects and offer an array of enrichment activities to students and thier families.
Boys & Girls Clubs of Southeast Virginia - Cohort 3	Norfolk	Anitra Pregiato	2005	$132,000	The Boys & Girls Clubs of Southeast Virginia and Chesapeake City Public Schools have collaborated to provide an after-school and summer program for youth ages 6-18.
Brunswick County Public Schools - Cohort 2	Lawrenceville	Mrs. Cheryl Perry B	2004	$167,000	Our project offers students an extended school day throughout the year, which includes academic enrichment activities and recreational activities.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Virginia

Brunswick County Public Schools (MP) - Cohort 3	Lawrenceville	Cheryl D. Perry	2005	$128,000	Project ENGAGE (Enhancing our Neighborhood for Greatness, Achievement, Growth, and Excellence) offers students and families academic assistance and recreational activities after school, on Saturdays, and during the summer.
Campagna Center-Cohort 1	Alexandria	Michele Brandon	2003	$175,000	The Mt.Vernon program is an academic after-school enrichment program for students performing below grade level and/or in need of additional academic assistance i.e. Spanish literacy for Spanish speakers.
Caroline County Public Schools-Cohort 1	Bowling Green	Beale, Rebecca T.	2003	$173,419	Caroline County Public Schools has established Satellite Learning Centers throughout the community. Based in nine churches, these centers serve K-8 students and families.
Carroll County Public Schools (CI) Cohort 3	Hillsville	Ms. Linda Dalton	2004	$145,000	The CASE Program, Cavalier After School and summer Experience Program, offers remedial classes in Reading/English, and math. The CASE Program also offers activities in arts and athletics.
Carroll County Public Schools (OW) - Cohort 3	Hillsville	Ms. Beverly Parker	2004	$150,000	Project HOPE-Helping Our Students Excel exists in two schools in Carroll County, Woodlawn School and Oakland Elementary School.
Charles City County Public Schools - Cohort 2	Charles City	Dr. Pat Alexander	2004	$192,000	The 21st CCLC Program uses the title, CHAMPS (Champions for Higher Achievement and Making Progress with SOLs (Standards of Learning)). Programs to support family literacy and educational development are important components.
Chesterfield County Public Schools - Cohort 3	Richmond	Susan Dandridge	2005	$155,000	In partnership with the Boys and Girls Club of MetroRichmond and other community agencies, Falling Creek Elementary and Middle Schools will provide after school academic support and enrichment activities for a total of 140 at risk students.
Colonial Beach Public Schools - Cohort 2	Colonial Beach	Blaire Denson	2004	$147,670	Colonial Beach Public School Division is successfully implementing the 'Lessons Encouraging Academic Progress (LEAP) to Success' program. LEAP provides participating students in kindergarten through seventh grade an after school program three days a week.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Virginia

Computer Learning Center Partnership - Cohort 3	Fairfax	Emily Bryant	2004	$166,000	This joint effort of the Computer Learning Centers Partnership (CLCP) and the Fairfax County Public Schools aims to transform two schools, Hybla Valley Elementary and Mt. Vernon Woods Elementary Schools into 21st Century Learning Centers.
Covington City Public Schools - Cohort 2	Covington	Dianne Garcia	2004	$193,250	The purpose of the Community Learning Center is to establish two sites for students in grades K-7 at Edgemont Primary School and Jeter-Watson Intermediate School that will offer extended learning opportunities after school and during the summer.
Culpeper County Public Schools-Cohort 1	Culpeper	Barbara White	2003	$120,000	The 21st Century grant provides high quality academic and family support programs focused on improving academic achievement. The Culpeper Community Learning Center (CCLS) stresses academic achievement and helps to meet needs and eliminates barriers.
Cumberland County Public Schools (CE) - Cohort 2	Cumberland	Linda Staylor	2004	$185,000	Reaching for the Stars and Beyond serves approximately 300 students and families at Cumberland Elementary School. The program provides a supervised, safe, drug-free haven that promotes and provides for academic achievement.
Cumberland County Public Schools (CH) - Cohort 2	Cumberland	Linda Staylor	2004	$135,493	Cumberland County Dukes Prepare for the Future will serve 150 students and families. The program will provide a supervised, safe, drug-free haven that promotes and provides for academic achievement through an array of learning styles so that at-risk stud
Cumberland County Public Schools(CM)-Cohort 2	Cumberland	Linda Staylor	2004	$185,000	The program provides a supervised, safe, drug-free haven that promotes and provides for academic achievement through an array of learning styles so that at risk students will meet and exceed state and local standards in their core subjects.
Franklin City Public Schools-Cohort 2	Franklin	Ken Raybuck	2004	$167,000	Franklin City Public Schools in partnership with the Boys/Girls Clubs of Southeast Virginia provide year round academic enrichment and personal development programs.
Galax City Public Schools-Cohort 1	Galax	Cardwell, Rebecca	2003	$154,982	Providing academic enrichment opportunities, as well as remediation and family involvement programs for elementary students.
Greensville County Public Schools (BES) -Cohort 3	Emporia	Mr. Curtis Young	2004	$133,000	To provide afterschool remediation and enrichment programs.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Virginia

Greensville County Public Schools (GE) -Cohort 1	Emporia	Mueller, William	2003	$141,255	the program expands after school remediation and provides enrichment courses to students during the regular school year and in the summer time. Additionally,the school partners with the Boys and Girls Club.
Greensville County Public Schools (WMS) -Cohort 3	Emporia	John Conley	2004	$120,000	The grant will incorporate after school tutorials and summer school enrichment programs.
Hampton City Public School (AM) - Cohort 1	Hampton	Katherine Fox	2003	$112,243	Hampton's 21st Century program prepares youth for academic and social success through quality enrichment, tutoring, and mentoring. The program also provides a network of support for the families of participants.
Hampton City Public Schools (BL) - Cohort 2	Hampton	Katherine Fox	2004	$165,053	Hampton's 21st Century program prepares youth for academic and social success through quality enrichment, tutoring, and mentoring. The program also provides a network of support for the families of participants.
Hampton City Public Schools (CE) -Cohort 3	Hampton	Katherine Fox	2005	$180,000	The program provides quality academic and social enrichment through active learning during out of school time. Our goal is to serve the whole child through family and community support.
Hampton City Public Schools (LM) -Cohort 3	Hampton	Katherine Fox	2004	$175,000	Hampton's 21st Century program prepares youth for academic and social success through quality enrichment, tutoring, and mentoring. The program also provides a network of support for the families of participants.
Hopewell Public Schools-Cohort 1	Hopewell	Linda Hyslop	2003	$148,000	The Hopewell Public Schools offer an extended day program at two sites for students who need additional help in reading and mathematics.
Lee County Public Schools - Cohort 2	Jonesville	Fred Marion	2004	$110,493	The St.Charles Elementary 21stCCLC Program provides safe, drug free quality after-school services for all students and parents in homework assistance, reading, math, science and social studies remediation, technology and library media services...
Martinsville City Public Schools-Cohort 1	Roanoke	Nancy Bell	2003	$177,256	Our after school programs transitioned into Boys & Girls Clubs over the summer as a way to sustain them into the future. We are running four club sites at four schools.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Virginia

New Bethel Baptist Church-Cohort 1	Portsmouth	Mark M. Whitaker	2003	$165,000	The New Bethel 21st Century Community Learning Center is a Faith-Based Afterschool Program. A significant change in circumstances was the additional program component of the Hampton University's Young Doctors Summer Program.
Newport News City Public Schools Cohort 2	Newport News	Jacob Wilson	2004	$170,000	WE PASS is an after-school and summer math and reading remediation program designed to meet the needs of students who did not pass their 5th grade SOLs and/or have poor performance in math and reading.
Norfolk City Public Schools (CF) - Cohort 2	Norfolk	Gary Ruesegger	2004	$177,851	Our 21st CCLC schools provide safe havens for students after school and during the summer and also provide academic remediation and enrichment activities to improve student achievement as measured by the Virginia SOL tests.
Norfolk City Public Schools (LN) - Cohort 1	Norfolk	Gary Ruesegger	2003	$149,739	Our 21st CCLC will provide a safe haven for students after school and during the summer and also provide academic remediation and enrichment activities to improve student achievement as measured by the SOL tests.
Northampton County Public Schools (KE)-Cohort 1	Machipongo	Sandra Drummond	2003	$124,732	Project KIP is a three day a week program that serves approximately 123 students and community members at the southern end of Northampton County. KIP offers academic programs as well as a wide array of the arts throughout the entire calendar year.
Northampton County Public Schools (NM) -Cohort 1	Machipongo	Sandra Drummond	2003	$169,400	The Lights On program is a school and community based project that has made a significant impact on our community. Students enjoy a well rounded program that continues throughout the summer.
Nottoway County Public Schools (BP)-Cohort 2	Nottoway	Michelle Wallace	2004	$180,000	Planting Seeds in Blackstone serves the students and family members of Blackstone Primary School offering afterschool and summer programs in a safe, drug-free haven that promotes and provides for academic achievement.
Nottoway County Public Schools (CPBE)-COHORT 1	Nottoway	Michelle Wallace	2003	$150,000	The Crewe and Burkeville ;Kiddy College provides a supervised, safe, drug-free haven that promotes and provides for academic achievement through an array of learning styles so that at-risk students will meet and exceed states and local standards.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Virginia

Nottoway County Public Schools (NH)-Cohort 1	Nottoway	Michelle Wallace	2003	$180,000	The program is designed to provide a supervised, safe, drug-free haven that promotes and provides for academic achievement through an array of learning styles so that at-risk students will meet and exceed state and local standards in their core subjects.
Nottoway County Public Schools (NIS)-Cohort 3	Nottoway	Michelle Wallace	2004	$180,000	Growing Minds in Nottoway will provide a supervised, safe and drug free haven for students after school, on Saturdays and during the summer. The program will promote academic achievement through an array of learning styles.
Nottoway County Public Schools (NMS)-Cohort 3	Nottoway	Michelle Wallace	2004	$180,000	Growing Minds in Nottoway will provide a supervised, safe and drug free haven for students after school, on Saturdays and during the summer. The program will promote academic achievement through an array of learning styles so that at-risk students will m
Patrick County Public Schools-Cohort 2	Stuart	Cindi Courter	2004	$95,000	Our 21stCCLC grant serves two of the six elementary schools in Patrick County: Woolwine Elementary School and Blue Ridge Elementary School. This after-school program combines a tutoring/homework assistance program with a variety of other programs.
Petersburg City Public Schools - Cohort 2	Petersburg	Irene Lamanen	2004	$188,400	After-school programs are offered in two elementary schools, grades 2-5, to enable students to meet proficiency in reading and math measures in accordance with the Standards of Learning and No Child Left Behind legislation.
Petersburg City Public Schools (HE) - Cohort 3	Petersburg	Pamela McLaughlin	2005	$188,250	In response to school, student, and family needs, we have designed a 21st Century Community Learning Center Program that will help satisfy the identified needs of our students and provide desperately needed services in tutoring and mentoring.
Pittsylvania County Public Schools-Cohort 1	Chatham	Scott, Clarke C.	2003	$75,000	The PCS 21stCCLC program operates two school centers that provide extended day learning opportunities in a safe, drug-free environment. The focus of each center is improved student achievement through a variety of programs.
Portsmouth City Public School (CM)-Cohort 1	Portsmouth	Eric Fischer	2003	$50,000	This is an after school program designed to provide students with academic, artistic, and nutritional enrichment. The principal, program facilitator and some of the program staff from last year no longer work at the school.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Virginia

Portsmouth City Public Schools (DP)-Cohort 3	Portsmouth	Barbara Jones-Smit	2004	$157,000	Giving Energetic Minds Support (GEMS) is a year-round after school and summer school learning center. Boys & Girls Clubs of Southeast Virginia collaborates with Douglass Park to provide academic and enrichment for 200 children in the school.
Portsmouth City Public Schools (HM)-Cohort 2	Portsmouth	Daisy Murphy	2004	$125,000	This project is intended to assist at risk middle school students (grade 6-8)in improving academic skills on the state required SOL test as a result of improved behavior and attudies towards learning.
Prince William County Public Schools - (KIL) Cohort 2	Manassas	Carolyn DeLaFleur	2004	$84,978	Our project provides an after school program, summer school program, and parent/school/community activities.
Prince William County Public Schools (KE) - Cohort 3	Woodbridge	Betty Williams	2005	$97,754	Currently Kerrydale E.S is maintaining strong community partnerships with our Parent Resource Center (held on Mondays from 6-8:00pm)
Prince William County Public Schools (SE) - Cohort 3	Manassas	Donna Fagerholm	2005	$160,000	This project is to provide before and after school programs for remediation and enrichment to students who are at risk due to their socioeconomic status, limited English ability and academic assessment data.
Pulaski County Public Schools-Cohort1	Pulaski	Bailey, Christine	2003	$146,852
Richmond City Public Schools (EM)-Cohort 3	Richmond	Cozette McIntyre	2004	$179,000	Richmond Public Schools in collaboration with the Science Museum of Virginia and other community organizations will establish community lerning centers to provide after-school activities to improve academic achievement in 250 students.
Richmond City Public Schools (FC)-Cohort 3	Richmond	Cozette McIntyre	2005	$165,000	The Eagles' Elite Academy will be an exciting addition to the regular program offerings at Fairfield Court. The program will begin with 2nd to 5th graders; kindergarteners and first graders will be added next year.
Richmond City Public Schools (MLK)-Cohort1	Richmond	Cozette McIntyre	2003	$192,754	The Achievers' Program is an after school and Saturday Academy program designed to enhance academic achievement, promote cultural awareness, and increase parental involvement.
Richmond City Public Schools(GM)-Cohort 1	Richmond	Cozette McIntyre	2003	$192,754	The After School program at George Mason Elementary provided academic, cultural and artistic enrichment activities on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 3:45 to 6:00p.m.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Virginia

Roanoke City Public Schools-Cohort 1	Roanoke	Jonathan Pait	2003	$169,550	The Addison Community Learning Center (ACLC) serves middle school students through remediation, academic support, recreation, and community based organizations' activities on a daily basis.
Roanoke City Public Schools (FH)-Cohort 3	Roanoke	Dana Thurston	2005	$180,000	The Fleming Community Learning Center is a two-pronged venture seeking to enrich the lives of Fleming students. The first provides after school academic/enrichment opportunities to Fleming students during the school year and the summer.
Rockbridge County Public Schools (NB)-Cohort 2	Natural Bridge	Lea Braford	2004	$163,028	Our afterschool program works to enrich the lives of our rural students as well as remediate their academic needs. Evening classes for parents are blossoming slowly while major renovations to school buildings bring challenges.
Rockbridge County Public Schools(MV)-Cohort1	Natural Bridge	Lea Braford	2003	$131,986	Major renovations to the school building have added challenges. The afterschool program works to enrich the lives of our rural students and remediate academic needs.
Rockingham County Public Schools-Cohort 1	Harrisonburg	Nancy Lantz	2003	$195,000	Rockingham County Public Schools and partner, Boys and Girls Club of Harrisonburg and Rockingham County, coordinate a program in two schools,Mountain View Elementary and Pleasant Valley Elementary, to provide before school, after school and summer programs.
Russell County Public Schools (CE)-Cohort 1	Lebanon	Penny Hudson	2003	$152,327	The 21st Century Community Learning Center at Castlewood Elementary is a program designed to enhance student achievement and to prevent problem behaviors that put pre-adolescents at risk for academic and social failure.
Russell County Public Schools (GSE)-Cohort 3	Swords Creek	Mrs. Rebecca Dye	2004	$135,000	The 21st CCLC will provide after-school and summer tutoring/remediation services and enrichment programs for the Givens-Swords Creek Elementary school.
Russell County Public Schools (HE)-Cohort 2	Lebanon	Angela Hess	2004	$154,540	Honaker Elementary's 21st Century HELP Program, Health, Education, Learning Program is implementing,coordinating and expanding a program which is designed to expand the educational day. Emphasis is placed on remedial and enrichment education services.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Virginia

Russell County Public Schools (HH)-Cohort 3	Honaker	Roberta Boyd	2004	$152,000	This project is intended to provide academic enrichment programs as well as programs to help prevent problem behaviors that put adolescents at risk of academic and social failure.
Russell County Public Schools (LELM)-Cohort 1	Lebanon	Sandra Justice	2003	$152,327	The 21st Century Community Learning Center at Lebanon Middle School is a program designed to enhance student achievement and to prevent problem behaviors that put pre-adolescents at risk for academic and social failure.
Russell County Public Schools (LP)-Cohort 3	Lebanon	Gina Wohlford	2005	$128,000	The goal of the RIPCORN program, Reading is Primary: Children Opening Receptive Doors, is to plan, implement, coordinate, expand and intergrate a program, which includes education, service, and support organizations.
Smyth County Public Schools (AE)-Cohort 3	Atkins	Joyce Collins	2004	$82,000	Atkins Elementary School 21stCCLC will provide a before school, after-school and summer school program. The four components of the program are language arts & math remediation, enrichment activities, parent involvement, and professional development.
Smyth County Public Schools (CE)-Cohort 2	Marion	Lelia Rash	2004	$199,477	To provide a remedial/enrichment program designed to meet the needs of every student through small group instruction and unit projects.
Smyth County Public Schools (MP)-Cohort 3	Marion	Kimberly Williams	2004	$169,000	Marion Primary School will establish a before school program, an after school program, and summer program to enrich and supplement educational and technological objectives.
Smyth County Public Schools (SE)- Cohort 3	Saltville	Brenda Boone	2005	$185,000	Saltville Elementary School's Learning Center focuses on building lasting community and parental involvement, improving student achievement, enriching the quality of life for students and families, and providing staff development.
Washington County Public Schools - Cohort 3	Abingdon	Foney Mullins	2004	$175,000	The purpose of the grant is to provide students with activities designed to compliment the students' academic program following the regular school day.
Westmoreland County Public Schools-Cohort 1	Montross	Cathy R. Rice	2003	$170,000	Two centers serve targeted students two evenings each week and provide students with the following activities: counseling and character education, language arts, math, recreation & enrichment, and tutoring & homework help.

21st Century Community Learning Grants in Virginia

Winchester Public Schools - Cohort 3	Winchester	J. Vernon Laney	2005	$190,000	Winchester Public Schools and project partners will provide multiple services to ESL students and their families. Services include an after-school instructional and enrichment program; ESL parent education; and an ESL Intake Center.
Wise County Public Schools (AE)- Cohort 2	Appalachia	Sandra B. Cohl	2004	$185,000	This project provides after school tutoring and enrichment programs for students in grades kindergarten through seventh grade. Parent resources are offered on a limited basis.
Wise County Public Schools (PV) - Cohort 3	Big Stone Gap	Fred Fox	2005	$187,000	The 21st Century Community Learning Center based at Powell Valley Primary School is an extended school program comprised of after school and summer sessions for the students attending Powell Valley Primary School.
Wise County Public Schools(JWA) -Cohort 1	Pound	Susan Mullins	2003	$200,000	We provide academic, recreational, and cultural activities for students and their families. We do this in an area that is economically disadvantaged and with little or no outside assistance, in a community where the school is the biggest employer and hub.
YMCA of Fairfax-Cohort 1	Reston	Andrea Brason	2003	$187,441	At this time our project is to tutor the kids with SOL subjects and helping them with homework. The subjects include science projects, math games, guided reading, and self selected reading every day.